NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE First Assembly district Republican convention for the election of five delegates to the state convention at Saratoga, has been called to meet at the Eagle Hotel, Kingston, on Saturday of next week, at 2 P. M.

THE corn and buckwheat of Rockland county are prostrate in the mud, blown down by the blizzards of this week. Much fruit is also blown off and destroyed, and heavily laden trees are broken down. To the farmers of Rockland the storm has reached the magnitude of a great calamity.

THE Postmaster General has closed the postoffice at Lucerne, Ala. This is the office the colored Postmaster of which was insulted and abused and his place of business burned down. The action of the Department is perfectly justifiable, for people who do such things can have no use for a postoffice.

CHARLES MIGUARD, a Hoboken compositor, was bitten on the nose by a Jersey mosquito two weeks ago. He rubbed the bite with his hand, which was black with ink from the type. Blood poisoning set in, and though his physician caused the sore to nearly disappear last Friday, then it suddenly reappeared, and yesterday he died.

CANADA sold to the United States $42,572,065 worth of merchandise in 1888, and to Great Britian only $42,094,984 worth. The imports from the United States were $9,000,000 greater than from Great Britain. This was the first year in which the United States ever got ahead of Great Britain in its trade with the Dominion. The fact is opening the eyes of the Canadians to the importance of maintaining amicable relations with this country.

TO DAY is Friday, and it is also the 13th of the month. This is the first time in 1889 that this combination, so worrisome to the superstitious, has occurred, though it will happen again in December, and always takes place two or three times a year. Many people along the Jersey and Long Island coasts are congratulating themselves that the storm is over and they are yet safe, and will count Friday, Sept. 13, among their lucky days. But it will be an unlucky day for the man who is hanged.

CORPORAL TANNER did not talk yesterday, though he was in unusually good spirits. He realizes now that when he had a good office he talked too much. If his misfortunes have put a seal upon his lips, he may have less trouble when he gets into another office. He is pleased with the certificate of character which the President gave him, and goes out of office without the smell of corruption on his garments. The liberal pension policy which he inaugurated is to be maintained, but his predecessor is not likely to insist that he is the only officer of the government, or even to allow his personal greatness to overshadow all the rest. The man who wrote that he was "biger than old Grant" experienced a terrible shrinkage a few days afterwards. There are Grand Army men in this city who expressed regret when they heard of Tanner's appointment. They said he was troubled with the "Big Head."

MONROE GRAY shot himself through the heart in a fit of remorse at Carondelet, Ill., yesterday. Five years ago Gray was a school teacher in Columbia, Ill. His wife contracted an intimacy with William Deitsch, a millionaire farmer, and Gray succeeded in detecting them. He gave both a minute to prepare for death, and though they begged piteously for mercy, shot them dead when the time was up. He was tried and sent to prison for a year, but was pardoned in two months. He brought his two children to Carondelet and was very devoted to them, but was always melancholy. On Wednesday he wrote a long letter to his children, telling them that his burden was too heavy and that he had twice attempted his life but failed. Yesterday morning he lay down upon the floor, placed a pistol to his heart and ended the long tragedy. Life might have gone differently if he had pardoned his erring wife and sent her away. There is no guilt that gnaws the conscience like blood guiltiness.

A DIVORCE was granted in a Chicago court yesterday in precisely ten minutes from the time that the application was presented. The plaintiff was Edward D. Tucker and the defendant his first wife Josephine. The latter came into court to help the proceedings along. Edward married Josephine in 1868, but she deserted him in a year and went to Kansas where she obtained a divorce. Tucker married No. 2, but in a short time deserted her and obtained a Utah divorce. He soon married No. 3. His second wife heard of it and caused his arrest for bigamy. Then it was discovered that all of the divorce proceedings had been irregular, and that his only lawful wife was the first one. He was convicted and sent to prison, from which he was recently discharged. Then he moved for a divorce from his first wife, who kindly came to Chicago to help him through. The proceedings yesterday made him a free man, and he is now at liberty to rewed No. 2, No. 3, or take an entirely new wife.

DEMOCRATIC editors are not agreed among themselves concerning the Governor's power to remove a Sheriff. The Utica Observer and Albany Times contend that he cannot remove Sheriff Flack until charges are preferred; the Observer even insists that they must be official, i. e., presented by some officer. But the Rochester Union, while Gov. Lowry was hunting for Sullivan, called daily upon Gov. Hill to remove the Sheriff (Republican) of Allegany county because he did not arrest Sullivan and his gang while the big Democrat was training for the encounter, and thus prevent them from leaving the state. The Union did not cause official charges to be formulated, but insisted that the Governor knew sufficiently of the Sheriff's delinquency to act. The Union is edited by just as ardent a Democrat as the other papers mentioned, but he sometimes allows a flash of common sense to come between himself and his devotion to the Governor. The Union's position coincides precisely with that of THE FREEMAN.

IN THE DR. CRONIN MURDER CASE.

Some Positive Evidence Secured Against Coughlin, Burke, Cooney and Sullivan.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—A local paper says positive evidence has been adduced to prove that Daniel Coughlin, Martin Burke, Patrick Cooney and Patrick O'Sullivan were in the Carlson Cottage on the night of May 3, until 1 o'clock in the morning of May 4, the day of the murder of Dr. Cronin. Isaac Robinson, a Lake View policeman, saw the four men leave Nenning's saloon, No. 1,750, Ashland-avenue, walk north on Ashland-avenue, and enter the Carlson Cottage. Nenning's bartender has told the States Attorney that on the night of May 3 four men, one of whom was his acquaintance, O'Sullivan, came into the saloon and called for drinks. After drinking a couple of rounds the quartette left. He says he remembers them proceeding north and stopping at about where he supposed the Carlson Cottage must be. This was a little after 11 o'clock, and after waiting a few minutes he shut up the saloon for the night and went up to visit his friend, John Ertel, at No. 1,995 Ashland-avenue. Here he stayed and chatted with Mr. Ertel and his son till nearly 1 o'clock, when he bade them good-night and started for his own home, which was with the Nenning family over the saloon. On his way down Ashland-avenue he passed the Carlson Cottage, diagonally in the rear of which is O'Sullivan's ice house and barn. As he passed by he saw four men leave by the side rear door, and make their way to the ice-man's barn. He is positive that O'Sullivan was the first of the four men to reach the barn, where, after opening the big sliding door, he waited for the other three to pass in, and then closed the door. The other three men were the same ones who had been drinking with the ice man in Nenning's saloon a couple of hours before. Last evening the bartender was taken to the jail and shown the Cronin prisoners. He recognized and spoke to O'Sullivan at once, and after taking a good look at Coughlin and Burke declared he could positively identify them as the men he saw with the ice man on the night of May 3.

REUNION OF SOLDIERS OF SOUTH-WEST

What Senator Ingalls Said About Army Veterans, Pensions and Corporal Tanner.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kans., Sept. 13.—The annual reunion of the Old Soldiers of the South-west opened yesterday at Camp Logan. Among those present were Governor Humphrey, of Kansas; Governor Hovey, of Indiana; Senator Ingalls, ex-Governor Anthony, of Kansas; Governor Hovey's staff, and several State officers of Kansas. O. M. Wilson, President of the Soldiers' Association, welcomed the visitors and the Mayor gave them the freedom of the City. Governor Humphrey extended welcome to the veterans on behalf of the State of Kansas. Senator Ingalls was given an ovation when he arose to speak. He said: "The wealth of this nation increases $420 with every tick of the watch and the soldiers have earned it all. Without them there would have been no treasury, no Nation, and they are entitled to their percentage of it. There are just three things that ought to be done," said the Senator: "First the limitation on pensions ought to be removed. Second, the disability pension bill ought to become a law. Third every soldier who received an honorable discharge ought also to receive a pension. These were the results Commissioner Tanner sought to attain in his administration of the office of Commissioner of Pensions, and I have honored him for his high desires and brave efforts in behalf of the veteran soldiers. The only fault I have to find with Tanner is that he did not have two feet while in office, so that he could have made more rapid progress in the attainment of his policy." Several public campfires were held last evening, at which noted speakers made addresses.

ALGER AND TANNER.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 13.—When General Alger was asked what he thought about Mr. Tanner's resignation he said in part: "I knew in a general way that he has been accused of exceeding his authority as Pension Commissioner. If he has done so I am sure it was unintentional. I don't believe he would do any dishonorable act."

WHAT SECRETARY NOBLE SAYS.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Commissioner of Pensions Tanner did not put in an appearance at the Pension Office to-day, and Deputy Commissioner Smith is Acting Commissioner. It is believed the Commissioner has taken leave of absence until the time for him taken over the office formally to his successor. Secretary Noble was asked to-day if he intended to make public the correspondence between himself and Commissioner Tanner which, it is said, the Secretary laid before the President, and on which he based his reasons for asking that the Commissioner should vacate the office. The Secretary replied he had no intention at present to make the correspondence public, but if it was deemed necessary, and there was any public demand for it, he might do so in the near future.

A COLLISION NEAR BROCKVILLE, ONT.

One Boat Had an Excursion Party on Board Three Lives Lost.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Sept. 13.—The steamer Rothesay, of Kingston, and the tug Moira, of Ogdensburgh, N. Y., collided between here and Maitland last night. Three lives were lost. The Rothesay had an excursion party on board. The Moira sank immediately. The Rothesay was beached.

Silver Discovered in Pennsylvania.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 13.—What is said to be a valuable find of silver ore has been discovered in the mountains near here by Joseph Avrington, a hunter. A great deal of excitement exists and prospectors swarm the mountains.

THE FUNERAL OF LATE "SUNSET" COX.

Church Filled With Illustrious Mourners and Friends of Dead Statesmen.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 13.—Long before 10 o'clock this forenoon, the hour set for the funeral of the late Samuel Sullivan Cox, the First Presbyterian Church, corner of Fifth-avenue and Twelfth-street, began to fill with illustrious mourners and admirers of the dead statesman from the humbler walks of life. The rain poured in torrents the whole morning and a disagreeable wind prevailed, but these inconveniences did not keep the crowds away. Before the services began the church was filled and it was necessary to close the doors, leaving many people outside on the sidewalk.

Late last evening the remains were taken back to the late residence of the dead Congressman from the church, it being deemed best that the funeral should start from the midst of the domestic surroundings he loved so well. The pall bearers and body bearers met at the house at 9 o'clock. Vice-President Morton was among the earliest of the callers. Soon after ex-President Cleveland reached the house. Both gentlemen shook hands warmly. The three officiating clergymen were also at the house early. They were Dr. Deems, of the Church of the Strangers; the Rev. Dr. Dewitt Talmage, and Dr. Milburn, Chaplain of the House of Representatives. At 10 o'clock the remains were placed in the hearse and taken to the church, only a block distant, followed by the pall bearers, members of the family and many persons in carriages. As the hearse passed along those standing on steps and sidewalks bared their heads. Every postman that could obtain leave of absence was at the church. They acted as ushers, or did anything they could to help accommodate the vast throng as they poured into the church.

The funeral procession, as it marched down the aisle, was led by the Rev. Dr. Deems, who recited the prayer "I am the Resurrection and the Life." Following were the Rev. Dr. Talmadge, Chaplain Milburn and the pall-bearers in the following order: Vice-President Morton and Grover Cleveland, General Sherman and ex-Governor Hoadley, Colonel John A. Cockrell and Sumner J. Kimball, ex-Chief Justice Daly and John T. Agnew, Edward Cahill and Douglas Taylor, S. H. Kauffman and M. H. Northrup. The casket was placed on a catafalque near the altar and surrounding it were countless floral offerings. The most magnificent piece was the token of esteem sent from Boston by the Letter Carriers' Association. It represented a floral closed volume which supported a cross. The whole was surmounted by a dove. It occupied a position at the head of the center aisle. To the right stood a massive Representation of the "Gates Ajar" presented by the New-York Letter Carriers' Association. The New-York Post-Office employes sent a novel design representing a mourning bordered envelope, a green leaf being used to represent a cancelled stamp. On the face was the inscription in violets "9—10—'89—8:30 P. M., N. Y. P O," in the form of a post-office stamp and signifying the hour of death.

A handsome floral piece from the New-York Life Saving Service bore that name on top of a floral life-belt below which was inscribed "He was our Firm Friend." Back of this was an oar muffled with crape. The Philadelphia Letter Carriers' Association sent a very handsome floral scroll upon which was inscribed "He was Our Firm Friend. Farewell, 1824-1889." After every one was seated the choir sang "The Lord is My Shepherd," and then the Rev. Dr. Deems read from the Scriptures. The Rev. Dr. Melburn followed and delivered a short address. The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage spoke very beautifully of Mr. Cox's character as a typical American. After that the choir sang "Adeste Fidelis" and the Rev. Dr. Deems pronounced the benediction.

Terrible Result of a Joke.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

TROY, Sept. 13.—John Gordon, in the employ of the Lake George Paper and Pulp Company, at Ticonderoga, fell asleep near the machinery. Two fellow-workmen, it is said, in a joke planned to scare him. They tied a rope about his feet, and threw it over a shaft making 125 revolutions a minute. They could not cut the rope in time, and Gordon was killed, the body being horribly mutilated. One of the perpetrators of the joke lost his reason from the shock.

Mussulmen and Hindoos at Odds.

By Cable to The Freeman.

SIMLA, Sept. 13.—During the celebration of a religious festival at Rohtak the Mussulmen and Hindoos became involved in religious disputes which led to rioting. The police were compelled to interfere to stop the fighting, but before they succeeded many of the rioters were shot by the officers. The Mussulmen at Delhi, 42 miles north-west of Rohtak, are oganizing to avenge the insults put upon them by the Hindoos.

Collision and Fire on a Railroad.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WARSAW, N. Y., Sept. 13.—About 4 o'clock this morning an east-bound Lehigh Valley freight train broke in two, one mile from Warsaw depot, and then came together again. The collision set fire to the cars and 10 burned, together with 13 Erie coal dumps, which were on a siding. The cars burned contained wheat middlings, iron pipe, machinery, etc. Loss many thousands of dollars. Passenger travel is but little delayed.

Two Chinamen Caught.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Sept. 19.—Five Chinamen attempted to cross the American line at Tia Juana yesterday but two were caught and turned back. The other three eluded the officers and took a train to San Diego, where they were arrested. They are supposed to be members of a gang of Chinese laborers taken from San Francisco some weeks ago to develop the Real Del Costillo mining district.

A Negro Hanged.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

GREENWOOD, Miss., Sept. 13.—As Louis Mortimer, a Negro who was captured in Clarksdale, was being taken before Justice Parks for a hearing as accessory to the murder of Elder Plunkett, who was killed by George Allen and his gang last Sunday night for refusing to join them, a mob of armed men rode up and overpowered the guard, took the prisoner and hanged him to a tree.

Suicide of a Defaulter.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 13.—Colonel T. F. Farron, Special Agent for the American Steam Boiler Insurance Company, of Chicago, died at a hotel here on Saturday but his body was not discovered until Monday night. Farron took his life rather than pay the penalty for stealing from the company, he being a defaulter to the amount of at least $6,000.

Called on the President.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Among the President's callers to-day was General George S. Merrill, of Boston, Past Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic. The President will not leave here for Deer Park to-day as he intended.

Trying to Break Cotton Ring.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 13.—A joint committee of the Blackburn cotton masters and mill operatives has been appointed to consider means by which the ring controlling the prices of cotton may be broken.

ANOTHER MURDER IN BROOKLYN.

A Millionaire Tool Manufacturer Dies at the Hands of an Old German.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 13.—F. W. Gesswein, the millionaire tool manufacturer of Brooklyn, sat in his office at 39 John-street this morning talking to his Superintendent, C. F. Koester, when the office door opened and Christian Deyhle, an old man with whom Mr. Gesswein had some trouble recently over a patent suit, entered. Deyhle requested a private interview with Mr. Gesswein and Mr. Koester stepped into the adjoining office. As soon as Koester left the office Deyhle demanded $500 from Mr. Gesswein. Mr. Gesswein politely refused to give him any money. Deyhle replied: "I am an old man. You have beaten me in my patent cases. I must have money to enter the Old Men's Home in Philadelphia. If you do not give it to me I will kill you," and before Mr. Gesswein could rise from his chair Deyhle drew a revolver and fired one shot which passed through Gesswein's heart. He staggered to his feet and screamed for help, then fell to the floor and died in a few minutes. When Koester heard the shot he rushed to the door and intercepted Deyhle, who attempted to run down stairs, and handed him over to an officer. Deyhle is an insignificant-looking German, with a full, straggling beard, and apparently over 60 years of age. When searched at the police station a few scraps of iron, a match-box and a few cents were found in his pockets. The revolver was taken from him. Mr. Gesswein was a fine-appearing man, about 41 years old.

RACE WAR IN STATE OF MISSOURI.

White Men Want to Exclude Negroes From Dexter—Trouble is Expected.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CAIRO, Ills., Sept. 13.—There are symptoms of a race war in Missouri at Dexter, 42 miles from here. The people in that section have for years excluded all Negroes from among them. A short time ago a man named Williams settled on a farm near there and engaged a dozen Negroes to work for him. Fifty armed white men waited upon him this week and told him he must get rid of the Negroes. He said they might kill him first. The armed men returned to town, where they circulated a paper pledging the signers to stand by the "Regulators." Five hundred men signed the paper. About 50 men side with Williams, among them a hardware merchant, who has imported Winchesters and ammunition sufficient to arm his side. Trouble is expected.

The Death Record.

William Goodenham, of Toronto, Ontario, a millionaire philanthropist and temperance advocate, died last night of heart disease.

Mrs. Constant Cook died in Bath, N. Y., on Tuesday at the advanced age of 91. Mrs. Cook was one of the early settlers of the Cohocton Valley. Her son, Henry H. Cook, of New-York City, is a Director of the Erie Railway.

Captain James H. Rees, a celebrated boat-builder, died at Pittsburg yesterday of asthma, after a prolonged illness. Captain Rees was the first manufacturer in the world to make a steel-plate boat. He was 69 years of age.

Hon. A. E. Touzalin, of Chicago, President of the Chicago, Burlington & Northern Railroad, died at Bennington, Vt., last night from hemorrhage of the lungs. He had been in poor health for some time.

William H. Cilley, the associate of General Meiggs in the construction of the celebrated Oroya Railroad, died on Tuesday at Lima, Peru.

Captain William B. Low, United States Army, of Junction City, Kan., died on Wednesday in Baltimore.

The Hon. Nathan H. Weeks, of Plymouth, N. H., aged 64 years, died yesterday.

That Strike in London.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—A conference was held to-day by Cardinal Manning, on behalf of the striking dock laborers, and the Directors of the dock companies. The Cardinal submitted to the Directors definite proposals from the strikers for the settlement of the wage question. These proposals, the Cardinal believes, will be accepted by the dock companies.

The Secretary of the Surrey Commercial Docks has officially refused to grant the terms demanded by the men's manifesto, but it is expected the matter will be arranged, as the Southern men are only striking out of sympathy with the Northern men.

The strike among the journeymen tailors ended to-day, the employers having reduced the working hours to 10½ daily.

LATER—The joint committee appointed to consider the proposals of the strikers have agreed that the wages demanded by the dock laborers shall be conceded, the advance to take effect November 4.

Suit Against Chinese Consul-General.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—The attorneys for Bock Hing and numerous other Chinese claimants, resident at Portland, Oregon, have filed a suit in the Federal Court here against Leong Tsing, Chinese Consul-General, for $17,000 indemnity claims, which it is alleged he has withheld.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 13.—The stock market was unusually quiet this morning and first prices were up ¼ and Wheeling and Lake Erie preferred ⅜. The business done was very small for the first hour and the fluctuations were limited but with a downward tendency. There was active trading in St. Paul, Union Pacific, Louisville & Nashville and Northern Pacific preferred, but the remainder were quiet to dull. At 11 o'clock the market was fairly active and firm to strong.

THE STORM IN NEW YORK.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 13.—It rained furiously during most of the night and there is still a steady down-pour this morning. The tides continue high and the City is almost drowned out. The prognostications of the weather prophet, who has hitherto had some reputation for reliability, have come to naught and there is no telling when the storm will cease. Business is greatly hampered, in the wholesale as well as retail districts. The losses of the merchants must mount away up in the thousands and some of them are becoming discouraged at the outlook, which a week ago was very bright and promising. Their expenses go on but their income for several days has been almost nothing. The rainfall since the beginning of the storm in this City amounts to over four inches.

Four steamers from Southern points reached port this morning. Not a sailing vessel left New-York yesterday, and but one came in—the pilot boat Edward F. Williams. It had a rough time and carried away its jib and fore-stay-sail by jumping into the rollers. It was apparent last evening that the gale was moderating off shore, but whether because the cyclone was passing off to the east, dodging the high pressure area on its north-east arc, or because it was wearing out, no one could say definitely. The pilot boats that were in Gravesend Bay on Wednesday all put out to sea yesterday. The supply of fish in the markets here is nearly exhausted.

CLOUD-BURST ON CONEY ISLAND.

Shortly after midnight there was a cloud-burst directly over Coney Island, and the water came down in tremendous quantities, striking the earth with great force, and doing almost as much damage to the lawns in the rear of the big hotels as the waves had done in front. It swelled the many lakes that Neptune had made all over the Island, and this morning many of the houses and all the small hotels were completely surrounded with from three to five feet of water. Some of the early risers had secured boats and were rowing about picking up hen-coops, boxes, barrels and other property that was floating about on the new made lakes. The cloud-burst did considerable damage to the Brighton Beach Hotel as the water came through the roof and soaked much of the ceiling in the upper rooms. The Manhattan Beach and Oriental Hotels also suffered under the cloud-burst and wind, and when the water had washed holes around the lamp-posts on the lawns, the wind would blow them down. Many of the electric light poles all over the Island were destroyed in this way and the wires broken. The waves at Brighton Beach rose to an alarming height at midnight.

A RESORT ENTIRELY SUBMERGED.

By Telegraph to The Freeman

LEWES, Del., Sept. 13.—Waterloo, a summer resort on the Delaware Bay, is entirely submerged.

GERMAN SHIP BEACHED.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 13.—The German ship Geestermunde, Captain Lenthe, is aground on Absecon Beach. It left Steethen July 14 for Philadelphia with cement and empty coal oil barrels. It struck the beach at 8 o'clock last evening. The Captain, who was on the bridge, thought he was off Cape Henlopen. The stranded vessel was only a quarter of a mile from the beach, but owing to the high sea it was after 9 o'clock when the life-saving crew reached its side. The crew of 18 men were in a panicky condition. They wanted to leave the vessel at once in their own boats, but Captain Lenthe and his First Mate were warned that it would be certain death by drowning, as their best boat was not large enough to breast the breakers. Towards midnight the sea threw the Geestermunde in shore, and this morning it was less than 40 yards from the beach. The vessel will probably be a total loss.

STEAMER ASHORE AT CAPE HENRY.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 13.—The steamer ashore near Cape Henry is the Godrevy, iron-laden, from St. Jago, Cuba, to Baltimore. The vessel rests easily half a mile from shore, and is in good condition. It will probably be floated without trouble. A wrecking steamer is abreast of it.

CHILDREN PICKED UP.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 13.—Captain McKee, of the steamer Yemossee, reports picking up two life boats, Captain F. A. Bull, wife and two children, and the crew of 14 of the bark Aloylois, from Copenhagen, which became water-logged in the gale. They were nearly dead.

THE ATLANTA ALL RIGHT.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 13.—The United States steamer Atlanta arrived here this morning from New-York. It suffered no damage from the storm.

VESSELS IN PORT.

The steamer City of Columbia, which was several days overdue from Havana, arrived this forenoon at New-York.

The steamer Augusta Victoria from Hamburg has arrived in New York.

The steamer Saale from Bremen has arrived at New-York.

Only Two Persons Drowned.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 13.—Samuel Jordin, of Waddington, and William Sullivan, of Ogdensburg, both of the Myra's crew, were the only persons drowned in the Rothesay collision. The tug was valued at $10,000. The Rothesay at $40,000.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE First Assembly district Republican convention for the election of five delegates to the state convention at Saratoga, has been called to meet at the Eagle Hotel, Kingston, on Saturday of next week, at 2 P. M.

THE corn and buckwheat of Rockland county are prostrate in the mud, blown down by the blizzards of this week. Much fruit is also blown off and destroyed, and heavily laden trees are broken down. To the farmers of Rockland the storm has reached the magnitude of a great calamity.

THE Postmaster General has closed the postoffice at Lucerne, Ala. This is the office the colored Postmaster of which was insulted and abused and his place of business burned down. The action of the Department is perfectly justifiable, for people who do such things can have no use for a postoffice.

CHARLES MIGUARD, a Hoboken compositor, was bitten on the nose by a Jersey mosquito two weeks ago. He rubbed the bite with his hand, which was black with ink from the type. Blood poisoning set in, and though his physician caused the sore to nearly disappear last Friday, then it suddenly reappeared, and yesterday he died.

CANADA sold to the United States $42,572,065 worth of merchandise in 1888, and to Great Britian only $42,694,984 worth. The imports from the United States were $9,000,000 greater than from Great Britain. This was the first year in which the United States ever got ahead of Great Britain in its trade with the Dominion. The fact is opening the eyes of the Canadians to the importance of maintaining amicable relations with this country.

TO DAY is Friday, and it is also the 13th of the month. This is the first time in 1889 that this combination, so worrisome to the superstitious, has occurred, though it will happen again in December, and always takes place two or three times a year. Many people along the Jersey and Long Island coasts are congratulating themselves that the storm is over and they are yet safe, and will count Friday, Sept. 13, among their lucky days. But it will be an unlucky day for the man who is hanged.

CORPORAL TANNER did not talk yesterday, though he was in unusually good spirits. He realizes now that when he had a good office he talked too much. If his misfortunes have put a seal upon his lips, he may have less trouble when he gets into another office. He is pleased with the certificate of character which the President gave him, and goes out of office without the smell of corruption on his garments. The liberal pension policy which he inaugurated is to be maintained, but his predecessor is not likely to insist that he is the only officer of the government, or even to allow his personal greatness to overshadow all the rest. The man who wrote that he was "biger than old Grant" experienced a terrible shrinkage a few days afterwards. There are Grand Army men in this city who expressed regret when they heard of Tanner's appointment. They said he was troubled with the "Big Head."

MONROE GRAY shot himself through the heart in a fit of remorse at Carondelet, Ill., yesterday. Five years ago Gray was a school teacher in Columbia, Ill. His wife contracted an intimacy with William Deitsch, a millionaire farmer, and Gray succeeded in detecting them. He gave both a minute to prepare for death, and though they begged piteously for mercy, shot them dead when the time was up. He was tried and sent to prison for a year, but was pardoned in two months. He brought his two children to Carondelet and was very devoted to them, but was always melancholy. On Wednesday he wrote a long letter to his children, telling them that his burden was too heavy and that he had twice attempted his life but failed. Yesterday morning he lay down upon the floor, placed a pistol to his heart and ended the long tragedy. Life might have gone differently if he had pardoned his erring wife and sent her away. There is no guilt that gnaws the conscience like blood guiltiness.

A DIVORCE was granted in a Chicago court yesterday in precisely ten minutes from the time that the application was presented. The plaintiff was Edward D. Tucker and the defendant his first wife Josephine. The latter came into court to help the proceedings along. Edward married Josephine in 1868, but she deserted him in a year and went to Kansas where she obtained a divorce. Tucker married No. 2, but in a short time deserted her and obtained a Utah divorce. He soon married No. 3. His second wife heard of it and caused his arrest for bigamy. Then it was discovered that all of the divorce proceedings had been irregular, and that his only lawful wife was the first one. He was convicted and sent to prison, from which he was recently discharged. Then he moved for a divorce from his first wife, who kindly came to Chicago to help him through. The proceedings yesterday made him a free man, and he is now at liberty to rewed No. 2, No. 3, or take an entirely new wife.

DEMOCRATIC editors are not agreed among themselves concerning the Governor's power to remove a Sheriff. The Utica Observer and Albany Times contend that he cannot remove Sheriff Flack until charges are preferred; the Observer even insists that they must be official, i. e., presented by some officer. But the Rochester Union, while Gov. Lowry was hunting for Sullivan, called daily upon Gov. Hill to remove the Sheriff (Republican) of Allegany county because he did not arrest Sullivan and his gang while the big Democrat was training for the encounter, and thus prevent them from leaving the state. The Union did not cause official charges to be formulated, but insisted that the Governor knew sufficiently of the Sheriff's delinquency to act. The Union is edited by just as ardent a Democrat as the other papers mentioned, but he sometimes allows a flash of common sense to come between himself and his devotion to the Governor. The Union's position coincides precisely with that of THE FREEMAN.

IN THE DR. CRONIN MURDER CASE.

Some Positive Evidence Secured Against Coughlin, Burke, Cooney and Sullivan.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—A local paper says positive evidence has been adduced to prove that Daniel Coughlin, Martin Burke, Patrick Cooney and Patrick O'Sullivan were in the Carlson Cottage on the night of May 3, until 1 o'clock in the morning of May 4, the day of the murder of Dr. Cronin. Isaac Robinson, a Lake View policeman, saw the four men leave Nenning's saloon, No. 1,750, Ashland-avenue, walk north on Ashland-avenue, and enter the Carlson Cottage. Nenning's bartender has told the States Attorney that on the night of May 3 four men, one of whom was his acquaintance, O'Sullivan, came into the saloon and called for drinks. After drinking a couple of rounds the quartette left. He says he remembers them proceeding north and stopping at about where he supposed the Carlson Cottage must be. This was a little after 11 o'clock, and after waiting a few minutes he shut up the saloon for the night and went up to visit his friend, John Ertel, at No. 1,995 Ashland-avenue. Here he stayed and chatted with Mr. Ertel and his son till nearly 1 o'clock, when he bade them good-night and started for his own home, which was with the Nenning family over the saloon. On his way down Ashland-avenue he passed the Carlson Cottage, diagonally in the rear of which is O'Sullivan's ice house and barn. As he passed by he saw four men leave by the side rear door, and make their way to the ice-man's barn. He is positive that O'Sullivan was the first of the four men to reach the barn, where, after opening the big sliding door, he waited for the other three to pass in, and then closed the door. The other three men were the same ones who had been drinking with the ice man in Nenning's saloon a couple of hours before. Last evening the bartender was taken to the jail and shown the Cronin prisoners. He recognized and spoke to O'Sullivan at once, and after taking a good look at Coughlin and Burke declared he could positively identify them as the men he saw with the ice man on the night of May 3.

REUNION OF SOLDIERS OF SOUTH-WEST

What Senator Ingalls Said About Army Veterans, Pensions and Corporal Tanner.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kans., Sept. 13.—The annual reunion of the Old Soldiers of the South-west opened yesterday at Camp Logan. Among those present were Governor Humphrey, of Kansas; Governor Hovey, of Indiana; Senator Ingalls, ex-Governor Anthony, of Kansas; Governor Hovey's staff, and several State officers of Kansas. O. M. Wilson, President of the Soldiers' Association, welcomed the visitors and the Mayor gave them the freedom of the City. Governor Humphrey extended welcome to the veterans on behalf of the State of Kansas. Senator Ingalls was given an ovation when he arose to speak. He said: "The wealth of this nation increases $420 with every tick of the watch and the soldiers have earned it all. Without them there would have been no treasury, no Nation, and they are entitled to their percentage of it. There are just three things that ought to be done," said the Senator: "First the limitation on pensions ought to be removed. Second, the disability pension bill ought to become a law. Third every soldier who received an honorable discharge ought also to receive a pension. These were the results Commissioner Tanner sought to attain in his administration of the office of Commissioner of Pensions, and I have honored him for his high desires and brave efforts in behalf of the veteran soldiers. The only fault I have to find with Tanner is that he did not have two feet white in office, so that he could have made more rapid progress in the attainment of his policy." Several public campfires were held last evening, at which noted speakers made addresses.

ALGER AND TANNER.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 13.—When General Alger was asked what he thought about Mr. Tanner's resignation he said in part: "I knew in a general way that he has been accused of exceeding his authority as Pension Commissioner. If he has done so I am sure it was unintentional. I don't believe he would do any dishonorable act."

WHAT SECRETARY NOBLE SAYS.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Commissioner of Pensions Tanner did not put in an appearance at the Pension Office to-day, and Deputy Commissioner Smith is Acting Commissioner. It is believed the Commissioner has taken leave of absence until the time for him to turn over the office formally to his successor. Secretary Noble was asked to-day if he intended to make public the correspondence between himself and Commissioner Tanner which, it is said, the Secretary laid before the President, and on which he based his reasons for asking that the Commissioner should vacate the office. The Secretary replied he had no intention at present to make the correspondence public, but if it was deemed necessary, and there was any public demand for it, he might do so in the near future.

A COLLISION NEAR BROCKVILLE, ONT.

One Boat Had an Excursion Party on Board—Three Lives Lost.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Sept. 13.—The steamer Rothesay, of Kingston, and the tug Moira, of Ogdensburgh, N. Y., collided between here and Maitland last night. Three lives were lost. The Rothesay had an excursion party on board. The Moira sank immediately. The Rothesay was beached.

Silver Discovered in Pennsylvania.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 13.—What is said to be a valuable find of silver ore has been discovered in the mountains near here by Joseph Avrington, a hunter. A great deal of excitement exists and prospectors swarm the mountains.

THE FUNERAL OF LATE "SUNSET" COX.

Church Filled With Illustrious Mourners and Friends of Dead Statesmen.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 13.—Long before 10 o'clock this forenoon, the hour set for the funeral of the late Samuel Sullivan Cox, the First Presbyterian Church, corner of Fifth-avenue and Twelfth-street, began to fill with illustrious mourners and admirers of the dead statesman from the humbler walks of life. The rain poured in torrents the whole morning and a disagreeable wind prevailed, but these inconveniences did not keep the crowds away. Before the services began the church was filled and it was necessary to close the doors, leaving many people outside on the sidewalk.

Late last evening the remains were taken back to the late residence of the dead Congressman from the church, it being deemed best that the funeral should start from the midst of the domestic surroundings he loved so well. The pall bearers and body bearers met at the house at 9 o'clock. Vice-President Morton was among the earliest of the callers. Soon after ex-President Cleveland reached the house. Both gentlemen shook hands warmly. The three officiating clergymen were also at the house early. They were Dr. Deems, of the Church of the Strangers; the Rev. Dr. Dewitt Talmage, and Dr. Milburn, Chaplain of the House of Representatives. At 10 o'clock the remains were placed in the hearse and taken to the church, only a block distant, followed by the pall bearers, members of the family and many persons in carriages. As the hearse passed along those standing on steps and sidewalks bared their heads. Every postman that could obtain leave of absence was at the church. They acted as ushers, or did anything they could to help accommodate the vast throng as they poured into the church.

The funeral procession, as it marched down the aisle, was led by the Rev. Dr. Deems, who recited the prayer "I am the Resurrection and the Life." Following were the Rev. Dr. Talmadge, Chaplain Milburn and the pall-bearers in the following order: Vice-President Morton and Grover Cleveland, General Sherman and ex-Governor Hoadley, Colonel John A. Cockrell and Sumner J. Kimball, ex-Chief Justice Daly and John T. Agnew, Edward Cahill and Douglas Taylor, S. H. Kauffman and M. H. Northrup. The casket was placed on a catafalque near the altar and surrounding it were countless floral offerings. The most magnificent piece was the token of esteem sent from Boston by the Letter Carriers' Association. It represented a floral closed volume which supported a cross. The whole was surmounted by a dove. It occupied a position at the head of the center aisle. To the right stood a massive Representation of the "Gates Ajar" presented by the New-York Letter Carriers' Association. The New-York Post-Office employes sent a novel design representing a mourning bordered envelope, a green leaf being used to represent a cancelled stamp. On the face was the inscription in violets "9—10—'89—8:30 P. M., N. Y. P. O," in the form of a post-office stamp and signifying the hour of death.

A handsome floral piece from the New-York Life Saving Service bore that name on top of a floral life-belt below which was inscribed "He was our Firm Friend." Back of this was an oar muffled with crape. The Philadelphia Letter Carriers' Association sent a very handsome floral scroll upon which was inscribed "He was Our Firm Friend. Farewell, 1824-1889." After every one was seated the choir sang "The Lord is My Shepherd," and then the Rev. Dr. Deems read from the Scriptures. The Rev. Dr. Milburn followed and delivered a short address. The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage spoke very beautifully of Mr. Cox's character as a typical American. After that the choir sang "Adeste Fidelis" and the Rev. Dr. Deems pronounced the benediction.

Terrible Result of a Joke.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

TROY, Sept. 13.—John Gordon, in the employ of the Lake George Paper and Pulp Company, at Ticonderoga, fell asleep near the machinery. Two fellow-workmen, it is said, in a joke planned to scare him. They tied a rope about his feet, and threw it over a shaft making 125 revolutions a minute. They could not cut the rope in time, and Gordon was killed, the body being horribly mutilated. One of the perpetrators of the joke lost his reason from the shock.

Mussulmen and Hindoos at Odds.

By Cable to The Freeman.

SIMLA, Sept. 13.—During the celebration of a religious festival at Rohtak the Mussulmen and Hindoos became involved in religious disputes which led to rioting. The police were compelled to interfere to stop the fighting, but before they succeeded many of the rioters were shot by the officers. The Mussulmen at Delhi, 42 miles north-west of Rohtak, are oganizing to avenge the insults put upon them by the Hindoos.

Collision and Fire on a Railroad.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WARSAW, N. Y., Sept. 13.—About 4 o'clock this morning an east bound Lehigh Valley freight train broke in two, one mile from Warsaw depot, and then came together again. The collision set fire to the cars and 10 burned, together with 13 Erie coal dumps, which were on a siding. The cars burned contained wheat middlings, iron pipe, machinery, etc. Loss many thousands of dollars. Passenger travel is but little delayed.

Two Chinamen Caught.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Sept. 19.—Five Chinamen attempted to cross the American line at Tia Juana yesterday but two were caught and turned back. The other three eluded the officers and took a train to San Diego, where they were arrested. They are supposed to be members of a gang of Chinese laborers taken from San Francisco some weeks ago to develop the Real Del Costillo mining district.

A Negro Hanged.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

GREENWOOD, Miss., Sept. 13.—As Louis Mortimer, a Negro who was captured in Clarksdale, was being taken before Justice Parks for a hearing as accessory to the murder of Elder Plunkett, who was killed by George Allen and his gang last Sunday night for refusing to join them, a mob of armed men rode up and overpowered the guard, took the prisoner and hanged him to a tree.

Suicide of a Defaulter.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

DENVER, Col., Sept. 13.—Colonel T. F. Farron, Special Agent for the American Steam Boiler Insurance Company, of Chicago, died at a hotel here on Saturday but his body was not discovered until Monday night. Farron took his life rather than pay the penalty for stealing from the company, he being a defaulter to the amount of at least $6,000.

Called on the President.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Among the President's callers to-day was General George S. Merrill, of Boston, Past Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic. The President will not leave here for Deer Park to-day as he intended.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LIVERPOOL, Sept. 13.—A joint committee of the Blackburn cotton masters and mill operatives has been appointed to consider means by which the ring controlling the prices of cotton may be broken.

ANOTHER MURDER IN BROOKLYN.

A Millionaire Tool Manufacturer Dies at the Hands of an Old German.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 13.—F. W. Gesswein, the millionaire tool manufacturer of Brooklyn, sat in his office at 39 John-street this morning talking to his Superintendent, C. F. Koester, when the office door opened and Christian Deyhle, an old man with whom Mr. Gesswein had some trouble recently over a patent suit, entered. Deyhle requested a private interview with Mr. Gesswein and Mr. Koester stepped into the adjoining office. As soon as Koester left the office Deyhle demanded $500 from Mr. Gesswein. Mr. Gesswein politely refused to give him any money. Deyhle replied: "I am an old man. You have beaten me in my patent cases. I must have money to enter the Old Men's Home in Philadelphia. If you do not give it to me I will kill you," and before Mr. Gesswein could rise from his chair Deyhle drew a revolver and fired one shot which passed through Gesswein's heart. He staggered to his feet and screamed for help, then fell to the floor and died in a few minutes. When Koester heard the shot he rushed to the door and intercepted Deyhle, who attempted to run down stairs, and handed him over to an officer. Deyhle is an insignificant-looking German, with a full, straggling beard, and apparently over 60 years of age. When searched at the police station a few scraps of iron, a match-box and a few cents were found in his pockets. The revolver was taken from him. Mr. Gesswein was a fine-appearing man, about 41 years old.

RACE WAR IN STATE OF MISSOURI.

White Men Want to Exclude Negroes From Dexter—Trouble is Expected.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CAIRO, Ills., Sept. 13.—There are symptoms of a race war in Missouri at Dexter, 42 miles from here. The people in that section have for years excluded all Negroes from among them. A short time ago a man named Williams settled on a farm near there and engaged a dozen Negroes to work for him. Fifty armed white men waited upon him this week and told him he must get rid of the Negroes. He said they might kill him first. The armed men returned to town, where they circulated a paper pledging the signers to stand by the "Regulators." Five hundred men signed the paper. About 50 men side with Williams, among them a hardware merchant, who has imported Winchesters and ammunition sufficient to arm his side. Trouble is expected.

The Death Record.

William Gooderham, of Toronto, Ontario, a millionaire philanthropist and temperance advocate, died last night of heart disease.

Mrs. Constant Cook died in Bath, N. Y., on Tuesday at the advanced age of 91. Mrs. Cook was one of the early settlers of the Cohocton Valley. Her son, Henry H. Cook, of New-York City, is a Director of the Erie Railway.

Captain James H. Rees, a celebrated boat-builder, died at Pittsburg yesterday of asthma, after a prolonged illness. Captain Rees was the first manufacturer in the world to make a steel-plate boat. He was 69 years of age.

Hon. A. E. Touzalin, of Chicago, President of the Chicago, Burlington & Northern Railroad, died at Bennington, Vt., last night from hemorrhage of the lungs. He had been in poor health for some time.

William H. Cilley, the associate of General Meiggs in the construction of the celebrated Oroya Railroad, died on Tuesday at Lima, Peru.

Captain William B. Low, United States Army, of Junction City, Kan., died on Wednesday in Baltimore.

The Hon. Nathan H. Weeks, of Plymouth, N. H., aged 64 years, died yesterday.

That Strike in London.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—A conference was held to-day by Cardinal Manning, on behalf of the striking dock laborers, and the Directors of the dock companies. The Cardinal submitted to the Directors definite proposals from the strikers for the settlement of the wage question. These proposals, the Cardinal believes, will be accepted by the dock companies.

The Secretary of the Surrey Commercial Docks has officially refused to grant the terms demanded by the men's manifesto, but it is expected the matter will be arranged, as the Southern men are only striking out of sympathy with the Northern men.

The strike among the journeymen tailors ended to-day, the employers having reduced the working hours to 10½ daily.

LATER—The joint committee appointed to consider the proposals of the strikers have agreed that the wages demanded by the dock laborers shall be conceded, the advance to take effect November 4.

Suit Against Chinese Consul-General.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 13.—The attorneys for Bock Hing and numerous other Chinese claimants, resident at Portland, Oregon, have filed a suit in the Federal Court here against Leong Tsing, Chinese Consul-General, for $17,000 indemnity claims, which it is alleged he has withheld.

THE STOCK AND MONEY MARKET.

Financial Doings on Wall-Street To-Day—The Closing Quotations.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 13.—The stock market was unusually quiet this morning and first prices were up ¼ and Wheeling and Lake Erie preferred ⅜. The business done was very small for the first hour and the fluctuations were limited but with a downward tendency. There was active trading in St. Paul, Union Pacific, Louisville & Nashville and Northern Pacific preferred, but the remainder were quiet to dull. At 11 o'clock the market was fairly active and firm to strong.

HAVOC WROUGHT BY GREAT STORM.

Steamships Ashore on the Atlantic Coast—The Latest From Devastated Points.

Half of the story of the havoc wrought by the great storm is yet to be told. The latest news received by telegraph by THE FREEMAN up to 5 o'clock this evening follows:

THE STORM IN NEW YORK.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 13.—It rained furiously during most of the night and there is still a steady down-pour this morning. The tides continue high and the City is almost drowned out. The prognostications of the weather prophet, who has hitherto had some reputation for reliability, have come to naught and there is no telling when the storm will cease. Business is greatly hampered, in the wholesale as well as retail districts. The losses of the merchants must mount away up in the thousands and some of them are becoming discouraged at the outlook, which a week ago was very bright and promising. Their expenses go on but their income for several days has been almost nothing. The rainfall since the beginning of the storm in this City amounts to over four inches.

Four steamers from Southern points reached port this morning. Not a sailing vessel left New-York yesterday, and but one came in—the pilot boat Edward F. Williams. It had a rough time and carried away its jib and fore-stay-sail by jumping into the rollers. It was apparent last evening that the gale was moderating off shore, but whether because the cyclone was passing off to the east, dodging the high pressure area on its north-east are, or because it was wearing out, no one could say definitely. The pilot boats that were in Gravesend Bay on Wednesday all put out to sea yesterday. The supply of fish in the markets here is nearly exhausted.

CLOUD-BURST ON CONEY ISLAND.

Shortly after midnight there was a cloud-burst directly over Coney Island, and the water came down in tremendous quantities, striking the earth with great force, and doing almost as much damage to the lawns in the rear of the big hotels as the waves had done in front. It swelled the many lakes that Neptune had made all over the Island, and this morning many of the houses and all the small hotels were completely surrounded with from three to five feet of water. Some of the early risers had secured boats and were rowing about picking up hen-coops, boxes, barrels and other property that was floating about on the new made lakes. The cloud-burst did considerable damage to the Brighton Beach Hotel as the water came through the roof and soaked much of the ceiling in the upper rooms. The Manhattan Beach and Oriental Hotels also suffered under the cloud-burst and wind, and when the water had washed holes around the lamp-posts on the lawns, the wind would blow them down. Many of the electric light poles all over the Island were destroyed in this way and the wires broken. The waves at Brighton Beach rose to an alarming height at midnight.

A RESORT ENTIRELY SUBMERGED.

By Telegraph to The Freeman

LEWES, Del., Sept. 13.—Waterloo, a summer resort on the Delaware Bay, is entirely submerged.

GERMAN SHIP BEACHED.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 13.—The German ship Geestermuende, Captain Lenthe, is aground on Absecon Beach. It left Steethen July 14 for Philadelphia with cement and empty coal oil barrels. It struck the beach at 8 o'clock last evening. The Captain, who was on the bridge, thought he was off Cape Henlopen. The stranded vessel was only a quarter of a mile from the beach, but owing to the high sea it was after 9 o'clock when the life-saving crew reached its side. The crew of 18 men were in a panicky condition. They wanted to leave the vessel at once in their own boats, but Captain Lenthe and his First Mate were warned that it would be certain death by drowning, as their best boat was not large enough to breast the breakers. Towards midnight the sea threw the Geestermunde in shore, and this morning it was less than 40 yards from the beach. The vessel will probably be a total loss.

STEAMER ASHORE AT CAPE HENRY.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 13.—The steamer ashore near Cape Henry is the Godrevy, iron-laden, from St. Jago, Cuba, to Baltimore. The vessel rests easily half a mile from shore, and is in good condition. It will probably be floated without trouble. A wrecking steamer is abreast of it.

CHILDREN PICKED UP.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 13.—Captain McKee, of the steamer Yemossee, reports picking up two life boats, Captain F. A. Bull, wife and two children, and the crew of 14 of the bark Aloyleds, from Copenhagen, which became water-logged in the gale. They were nearly dead.

THE ATLANTA ALL RIGHT.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 13.—The United States steamer Atlanta arrived here this morning from New-York. It suffered no damage from the storm.

VESSELS IN PORT.

The steamer City of Columbia, which was several days overdue from Havana, arrived this forenoon at New-York.

The steamer Augusta Victoria from Hamburg has arrived in New York.

The steamer Saale from Bremen has arrived at New-York.

Only Two Persons Drowned.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 13.—Samuel Jordin, of Waddington, and William Sullivan, of Ogdensburg, both of the Myra's crew, were the only persons drowned in the Rothesay collision. The tug was valued at $10,000. The Rothesay at $40,000.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE First Assembly district Republican convention for the election of five delegates to the state convention at Saratoga, has been called to meet at the Eagle Hotel, Kingston, on Saturday of next week, at 2 P. M.

THE corn and buckwheat of Rockland county are prostrate in the mud, blown down by the blizzards of this week. Much fruit is also blown off and destroyed, and heavily laden trees are broken down. To the farmers of Rockland the storm has reached the magnitude of a great calamity.

THE Postmaster General has closed the postoffice at Lucerne, Ala. This is the office the colored Postmaster of which was insulted and abused and his place of business burned down. The action of the Department is perfectly justifiable, for people who do such things can have no use for a postoffice.

CHARLES MIGUARD, a Hoboken compositor, was bitten on the nose by a Jersey mosquito two weeks ago. He rubbed the bite with his hand, which was black with ink from the type. Blood poisoning set in, and though his physician caused the sore to nearly disappear last Friday, then it suddenly reappeared, and yesterday he died.

CANADA sold to the United States $42,572,065 worth of merchandise in 1888, and to Great Britian only $42,094,984 worth. The imports from the United States were $9,000,000 greater than from Great Britain. This was the first year in which the United States ever got ahead of Great Britain in its trade with the Dominion. The fact is opening the eyes of the Canadians to the importance of maintaining amicable relations with this country.

TO DAY is Friday, and it is also the 13th of the month. This is the first time in 1889 that this combination, so worrisome to the superstitious, has occurred, though it will happen again in December, and always takes place two or three times a year. Many people along the Jersey and Long Island coasts are congratulating themselves that the storm is over and they are yet safe, and will count Friday, Sept. 13, among their lucky days. But it will be an unlucky day for the man who is hanged.

CORPORAL TANNER did not talk yesterday, though he was in unusually good spirits. He realizes now that when he had a good office he talked too much. If his misfortunes have put a seal upon his lips, he may have less trouble when he gets into another office. He is pleased with the certificate of character which the President gave him, and goes out of office without the smell of corruption on his garments. The liberal pension policy which he inaugurated is to be maintained, but his predecessor is not likely to insist that he is the only officer of the government, or even to allow his personal greatness to overshadow all the rest. The man who wrote that he was "biger than old Grant" experienced a terrible shrinkage a few days afterwards. There are Grand Army men in this city who expressed regret when they heard of Tanner's appointment. They said he was troubled with the "Big Head."

MONROE GRAY shot himself through the heart in a fit of remorse at Carondelet, Ill., yesterday. Five years ago Gray was a school teacher in Columbia, Ill. His wife contracted an intimacy with William Deitsch, a millionaire farmer, and Gray succeeded in detecting them. He gave both a minute to prepare for death, and though they begged pitcously for mercy, shot them dead when the time was up. He was tried and sent to prison for a year, but was pardoned in two months. He brought his two children to Carondelet and was very devoted to them, but was always melancholy. On Wednesday he wrote a long letter to his children, telling them that his burden was too heavy and that he had twice attempted his life but failed. Yesterday morning he lay down upon the floor, placed a pistol to his heart and ended the long tragedy. Life might have gone differently if he had pardoned his erring wife and sent her away. There is no guilt that gnaws the conscience like blood guiltiness.

A DIVORCE was granted in a Chicago court yesterday in precisely ten minutes from the time that the application was presented. The plaintiff was Edward D. Tucker and the defendant his first wife Josephine. The latter came into court to help the proceedings along. Edward married Josephine in 1868, but she deserted him in a year and went to Kansas where she obtained a divorce. Tucker married No. 2, but in a short time deserted her and obtained a Utah divorce. He soon married No. 3. His second wife heard of it and caused his arrest for bigamy. Then it was discovered that all of the divorce proceedings had been irregular, and that his only lawful wife was the first one. He was convicted and sent to prison, from which he was recently discharged. Then he moved for a divorce from his first wife, who kindly came to Chicago to help him through. The proceedings yesterday made him a free man, and he is now at liberty to rewed No. 2, No. 3, or take an entirely new wife.

DEMOCRATIC editors are not agreed among themselves concerning the Governor's power to remove a Sheriff. The Utica Observer and Albany Times contend that he cannot remove Sheriff Flack until charges are preferred; the Observer even insists that they must be official, i. e., presented by some officer. But the Rochester Union, while Gov. Lowry was hunting for Sullivan, called daily upon Gov. Hill to remove the Sheriff (Republican) of Allegany county because he did not arrest Sullivan and his gang while the big Democrat was training for the encounter, and thus prevent them from leaving the state. The Union did not cause official charges to be formulated, but insisted that the Governor knew sufficiently of the Sheriff's delinquency to act. The Union is edited by just as ardent a Democrat as the other papers mentioned, but he sometimes allows a flash of common sense to come between himself and his devotion to the Governor. The Union's position coincides precisely with that of THE FREEMAN.

IN THE DR. CRONIN MURDER CASE.

Some Positive Evidence Secured Against Coughlin, Burke, Cooney and Sullivan.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—A local paper says positive evidence has been adduced to prove that Daniel Coughlin, Martin Burke, Patrick Cooney and Patrick O'Sullivan were in the Carlson Cottage on the night of May 3, until 1 o'clock in the morning of May 4, the day of the murder of Dr. Cronin. Isaac Robinson, a Lake View policeman, saw the four men leave Nenning's saloon, No. 1,750, Ashland-avenue, walk north on Ashland-avenue, and enter the Carlson Cottage. Nenning's bartender has told the States Attorney that on the night of May 3 four men, one of whom was his acquaintance, O'Sullivan, came into the saloon and called for drinks. After drinking a couple of rounds the quartette left. He says he remembers them proceeding north and stopping at about where he supposed the Carlson Cottage must be. This was a little after 11 o'clock, and after waiting a few minutes he shut up the saloon for the night and went up to visit his friend, John Ertel, at No. 1,995 Ashland-avenue. Here he stayed and chatted with Mr. Ertel and his son till nearly 1 o'clock, when he bade them good-night and started for his own home, which was with the Nenning family over the saloon. On his way down Ashland-avenue he passed the Carlson Cottage, dingonally in the rear of which is O'Sullivan's ice house and barn. As he passed by he saw four men leave by the side rear door, and make their way to the ice-man's barn. He is positive that O'Sullivan was the first of the four men to reach the barn, where, after opening the big sliding door, he waited for the other three to pass in, and then closed the door. The other three men were the same ones who had been drinking with the ice man in Nenning's saloon a couple of hours before. Last evening the bar-tender was taken to the jail and shown the Cronin prisoners. He recognized and spoke to O'Sullivan at once, and after taking a good look at Coughlin and Burke declared he could positively identify them as the men he saw with the ice man on the night of May 3.

REUNION OF SOLDIERS OF SOUTH-WEST

What Senator Ingalls Said About Army Veterans, Pensions and Corporal Tanner.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ARKANSAS CITY, Kans, Sept. 13.—The annual reunion of the Old Soldiers of the Southwest opened yesterday at Camp Logan. Among those present were Governor Humphrey, of Kansas; Governor Hovey, of Indiana; Senator Ingalls, ex-Governor Anthony, of Kansas; Governor Hovey's staff, and several State officers of Kansas. O. M. Wilson, President of the Soldiers' Association, welcomed the visitors and the Mayor gave them the freedom of the City. Governor Humphrey extended welcome to the veterans on behalf of the State of Kansas. Senator Ingalls was given an ovation when he arose to speak. He said: "The wealth of this nation increases $420 with every tick of the watch and the soldiers have earned it all. Without them there would have been no treasury, no Nation, and they are entitled to their percentage of it. There are just three things that ought to be done," said the Senator: "First the limitation on pensions ought to be removed. Second, the disability pension bill ought to become a law. Third every soldier who received an honorable discharge ought algo to receive a pension. These were the results Commissioner Tanner sought to attain in his administration of the office of Commissioner of Pensions, and I have honored him for his high desires and brave efforts in behalf of the veteran soldiers. The only fault I have to find with Tanner is that he did not have two feet while in office, so that he could have made more rapid progress in the attainment of his policy." Several public campfires were held last evening, at which noted speakers made addresses.

ALGER AND TANNER.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

DETROIT, Mich, Sept. 13.—When General Alger was asked what he thought about Mr. Tanner's resignation he said in part: "I knew in a general way that he has been accused of exceeding his authority as Pension Commissioner. If he has done so I am sure it was unintentional. I don't believe he would do any dishonorable act."

WHAT SECRETARY NOBLE SAYS.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.—Commissioner of Pensions Tanner did not put in an appearance at the Pension Office to-day, and Deputy Commissioner Smith is Acting Commissioner. It is believed the Commissioner has taken a leave of absence until the time for him to turn over the office formally to his successor. Secretary Noble was asked to-day if he intended to make public the correspondence between himself and Commissioner Tanner which, it is said, the Secretary laid before the President, and on which he based his reasons for asking that the Commissioner should vacate the office. The Secretary replied he had no intention at present to make the correspondence public, but if it was deemed necessary, and there was any public demand for it, he might do so in the near future.

A COLLISION NEAR BROCKVILLE, ONT.

One Boat Had an Excursion Party on Board—Three Lives Lost.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., Sept. 13.—The steamer Rothesay, of Kingston, and the tug Moira, of Ogdensburgh, N. Y., collided between here and Maitland last night. Three lives were lost. The Rothesay had an excursion party on board. The Moira sank immediately. The Rothesay was beached.

Silver Discovered in Pennsylvania.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Sept. 13.—What is said to be a valuable find of silver ore has been discovered in the mountains near here by Joseph Avrington, a hunter. A great deal of excitement exists and prospectors swarm the mountains.

THE FUNERAL OF LATE "SUNSET" COX.

Church Filled With Illustrious Mourners and Friends of Dead Statesmen.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 13.—Long before 10 o'clock this forenoon, the hour set for the funeral of the late Samuel Sullivan Cox, the First Presbyterian Church, corner of Fifth-avenue and Twelfth-street, began to fill with illustrious mourners and admirers of the dead statesman from the humbler walks of life. The rain poured in torrents the whote morning and a disagreeable wind prevailed, but these inconveniences did not keep the crowds away. Before the services began the church was filled and it was necessary to close the doors, leaving many people outside on the sidewalk.

Late last evening the remains were taken back to the late residence of the dead Congressman from the church, it being deemed best that the funeral should start from the midst of the domestic surroundings he loved so well. The pall bearers and body bearers met at the house at 9 o'clock. Vice-President Morton was among the earliest of the callers. Soon after ex-President Cleveland reached the house. Both gentlemen shook hands warmly. The three officiating clergymen were also at the house early. They were Dr. Deems, of the Church of the Strangers; the Rev. Dr. Dewitt Talmage, and Dr. Milburn, Chaplain of the House of Representatives. At 10 o'clock the remains were placed in the hearse and taken to the church, only a block distant, followed by the pall bearers, members of the family and many persons in carriages. As the hearse passed along those standing on steps and sidewalks bared their heads. Every postman that could obtain leave of absence was at the church. They acted as ushers, or did anything they could to help accommodate the vast throng as they poured into the church.

The funeral procession, as it marched down the aisle, was led by the Rev. Dr. Deems, who recited the prayer "I am the Resurrection and the Life." Following were the Rev. Dr. Talmadge, Chaplain Milburn and the pall-bearers in the following order: Vice-President Morton and Grover Cleveland, General Sherman and ex Governor Hoadley, Colonel John A. Cockrell and Sumner J. Kimball, ex-Chief Justice Daly and John T. Agnew, Edward Cahill and Douglas Taylor, S. H. Kauffman and M. H. Northrup. The casket was placed on a catafalque near the altar and surrounding it were countless floral offerings. The most magnificent piece was the token of esteem sent from Boston by the Letter Carriers' Association. It represented a floral closed volume which supported a cross. The whole was surmounted by a dove. It occupied a position at the head of the center aisle. To the right stood a massive Representation of the "Gates Ajar" presented by the New-York Letter Carriers' Association. The New-York Post-Office employes sent a novel design representing a mourning bordered envelope, a green leaf being used to represent a cancelled stamp. On the face was the inscription in violets "9—10—'89—8:30 P. M., N. Y. P O," in the form of a post-office stamp and signifying the hour of death.

A handsome floral piece from the New-York Life Saving Service bore that name on top of a floral life-belt below which was inscribed "He was our Firm Friend." Back of this was an oar muffled with crape. The Philadelphia Letter Carriers' Association sent a very handsome floral scroll upon which was inscribed "He was Our Firm Friend. Farewell, 1824-1889." After every one was seated the choir sang "The Lord is My Shepherd," and then the Rev. Dr. Deems read from the Scriptures. The Rev. Dr. Melburn followed and delivered a short address. The Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage spoke very beautifully of Mr. Cox's character as a typical American. After that the choir sang "Adeste Fidelis" and the Rev. Dr. Deems pronounced the benediction.

Terrible Result of a Joke.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

TROY, Sept. 13.—John Gordon, in the employ of the Lake George Paper and Pulp Company, at Ticonderoga, fell asleep near the machinery. Two fellow-workmen, it is said, in a joke planned to scare him. They tied a rope about his feet, and threw it over a shaft making 125 revolutions a minute. They could not cut the rope in time, and Gordon was killed, the body being horribly mutilated. One of the perpetrators of the joke lost his reason from the shock.

ANOTHER MURDER IN BROOKLYN.

A Millionaire Tool Manufacturer Dies at the Hands of an Old German.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 13.—F. W. Gesswein, the millionaire tool manufacturer of Brooklyn, sat in his office at 39 John-street this morning talking to his Superintendent, C. F. Koester, when the office door opened and Christian Deyhle, an old man with whom Mr. Gesswein had some trouble recently over a patent suit, entered. Deyhle requested a private interview with Mr. Gesswein and Mr. Koester stepped into the adjoining office. As soon as Koester left the office Deyhle demanded $500 from Mr. Gesswein. Mr. Gesswein politely refused to give him any money. Deyhle replied: "I am an old man. You have beaten me in my patent cases. I must have money to enter the Old Men's Home in Philadelphia. If you do not give it to me I will kill you," and before Mr. Gesswein could rise from his chair Deyhle drew a revolver and fired one shot which passed through Gesswein's heart. He staggered to his feet and screamed for help, then fell to the floor and died in a few minutes. When Koester heard the shot he rushed to the door and intercepted Deyhle, who attempted to run down stairs, and handed him over to an officer. Deyhle is an insignificant-looking German, with a full, straggling beard, and apparently over 60 years of age. When searched at the police station a few scraps of iron, a match-box and a few cents were found in his pockets. The revolver was taken from him. Mr. Gesswein was a fine-appearing man, about 41 years old.

RACE WAR IN STATE OF MISSOURI.

White Men Want to Exclude Negroes From Dexter—Trouble is Expected.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

CAIRO, Ills., Sept. 13.—There are symptoms of a race war in Missouri at Dexter, 42 miles from here. The people in that section have for years excluded all Negroes from among them. A short time ago a man named Williams settled on a farm near there and engaged a dozen Negroes to work for him. Fifty armed white men waited upon him this week and told him he must get rid of the Negroes. He said they might kill him first. The armed men returned to town, where they circulated a paper pledging the signers to stand by the "Regulators." Five hundred men signed the paper. About 50 men side with Williams, among them a hardware merchant, who has imported Winchesters and ammunition sufficient to arm his side. Trouble is expected.

That Strike in London.

By Cable to The Freeman.

LONDON, Sept. 13.—A conference was held to-day by Cardinal Manning, on behalf of the striking dock laborers, and the Directors of the dock companies. The Cardinal submitted to the Directors definite proposals from the strikers for the settlement of the wage question. These proposals, the Cardinal believes, will be accepted by the dock companies.

The Secretary of the Surrey Commercial Docks has officially refused to grant the terms demanded by the men's manifesto, but it is expected the matter will be arranged, as the Southern men are only striking out of sympathy with the Northern men.

The strike among the journeymen tailors ended to-day, the employers having reduced the working hours to 10½ daily.

LATER—The joint committee appointed to consider the proposals of the strikers have agreed that the wages demanded by the dock laborers shall be conceded, the advance to take effect November 4.

HAVOC WROUGHT BY GREAT STORM.

Steamships Ashore on the Atlantic Coast—The Latest From Devastated Points.

Half of the story of the havoc wrought by the great storm is yet to be told. The latest news received by telegraph by THE FREEMAN up to 5 o'clock this evening follows:

THE STORM IN NEW YORK.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 13.—It rained furiously during most of the night and there is still a steady down-pour this morning. The tides continue high and the City is almost drowned out. The prognostications of the weather prophet, who has hitherto had some reputation for reliability, have come to naught and there is no telling when the storm will cease. Business is greatly hampered, in the wholesale as well as retail districts. The losses of the merchants must mount away up in the thousands and some of them are becoming discouraged at the outlook, which a week ago was very bright and promising. Their expenses go on but their income for several days has been almost nothing. The rainfall since the beginning of the storm in this City amounts to over four inches.

Four steamers from Southern points reached port this morning. Not a sailing vessel left New-York yesterday, and but one came in—the pilot boat Edward F. Williams. It had a rough time and carried away its jib and fore-stay-sail by jumping into the rollers. It was apparent last evening that the gale was moderating off shore, but whether because the cyclone was passing off to the east, dodging the high pressure area on its north-east arc, or because it was wearing out, no one could say definitely. The pilot boats that were in Gravesend Bay on Wednesday all put out to sea yesterday. The supply of fish in the markets here is nearly exhausted.

CLOUD-BURST ON CONEY ISLAND.

Shortly after midnight there was a cloud-burst directly over Coney Island, and the water came down in tremendous quantities, striking the earth with great force, and doing almost as much damage to the lawns in the rear of the big hotels as the waves had done in front. It swelled the many lakes that Neptune had made all over the Island, and this morning many of the houses and all the small hotels were completely surrounded with from three to five feet of water. Some of the early risers had secured boats and were rowing about picking up hen-coops, boxes, barrels and other property that was floating about on the new made lakes. The cloud-burst did considerable damage to the Brighton Beach Hotel as the water came through the roof and soaked much of the ceiling in the upper rooms. The Manhattan Beach and Oriental Hotels also suffered under the cloud-burst and wind, and when the water had washed holes around the lamp-posts on the lawns, the wind would blow them down. Many of the electric light poles all over the Island were destroyed in this way and the wires broken. The waves at Brighton Beach rose to an alarming height at midnight.

A RESORT ENTIRELY SUBMERGED.

By Telegraph to The Freeman

LEWES, Del., Sept. 13.—Waterloo, a summer resort on the Delaware Bay, is entirely submerged.

GERMAN SHIP BEACHED.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 13.—The German ship Geestermunde, Captain Lenthe, is aground on Absecon Beach. It left Steethen July 14 for Philadelphia with cement and empty coal oil barrels. It struck the beach at 8 o'clock last evening. The Captain, who was on the bridge, thought he was off Cape Henlopen. The stranded vessel was only a quarter of a mile from the beach, but owing to the high sea it was after 9 o'clock when the life-saving crew reached its side. The crew of 18 men were in a panicky condition. They wanted to leave the vessel at once in their own boats, but Captain Lenthe and his First Mate were warned that it would be certain death by drowning, as their best boat was not large enough to breast the breakers. Towards midnight the sea threw the Geestermunde in shore, and this morning it was less than 40 yards from the beach. The vessel will probably be a total loss.

STEAMER ASHORE AT CAPE HENRY.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NORFOLK, Va., Sept. 13.—The steamer ashore near Cape Henry is the Godrevy, iron-laden, from St. Jago, Cuba, to Baltimore. The vessel rests easily half a mile from shore, and is in good condition. It will probably be floated without trouble. A wrecking steamer is abreast of it.

CHILDREN PICKED UP.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEW-YORK, Sept. 13.—Captain McKee, of the steamer Yemossee, reports picking up two life boats, Captain F. A. Bull, wife and two children, and the crew of 14 of the bark Aloyldis, from Copenhagen, which became water-logged in the gale. They were nearly dead.

THE ATLANTA ALL RIGHT.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 13.—The United States steamer Atlanta arrived here this morning from New-York. It suffered no damage from the storm.

VESSELS IN PORT.

The steamer City of Columbia, which was several days overdue from Havana, arrived this forenoon at New-York.

The steamer Augusta Victoria from Hamburg has arrived in New York.

The steamer Saale from Bremen has arrived at New-York.

Only Two Persons Drowned.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 13.—Samuel Jordin, of Waddington, and William Sullivan, of Ogdensburg, both of the Myra's crew, were the only persons drowned in the Rothesay collision. The tug was valued at $10,000. The Rothesay at $40,000.

SHALL NEW MEXICO COME IN?

There are good and sufficient reasons why there should be no unseemly haste about admitting New Mexico as a state.—Boston Journal, Rep.

The "good and sufficient reason" is that the territory has a Democratic majority. According to the Journal's ideas no territory should be admitted as a state until there is at least a reasonable chance that it will elect Republican Senators.—Boston Globe, Dem.

The objection to New Mexico in the minds of many is the character of its population. It is largely Mexican, and a long way in the rear of American civilization. The people do not understand our language, and even in their elections for delegates to Congress vote tickets printed in the Spanish language. They are clannish, ignorant and bigoted. In religion they have hardly got away from the ideas and practices that prevailed in Spain in the days of the Inquisition. They do not make desirable citizens, and while they can neither be exterminated nor banished, there is a prevailing opinion that it would not be wise to enlarge their political powers.

We are disposed to question this opinion. There is nothing among these people to shock the moral sense like Mormonism and its polygamy. The objections that are effective against Utah cannot be urged against New Mexico at all. They are a people much like those of which a considerable portion of the population of many of our cities and some of our states is composed, aliens by descent and language. These people generally make good citizens; there are perhaps more vicious and unworthy ones among them in proportion to the whole than among the native population, but their viciousness does not affect the government because they are not in the majority. New Mexico has no more vice and crime than the city of New York; we are not sure that it has more ignorance, clannishness and bigotry. And yet New York, with its immense population, wealth and enterprise, holds a very small place in the government of the Union. There is nothing to fear from the admission of New Mexico, with its population of 160,000, a four hundredth part of the whole. The great American nation can take care of it and keep its people in their place.

The benefit of admitting New Mexico to the Union would accrue mainly to the new state itself. It would encourage immigration from the older states. On the day of admission there would be a rush to it like that to Oklahoma last spring. The present ignorant, idle and vicious elements would either become absorbed into the new population or soon brought into subjection to it. Partisan considerations should not weigh a moment against the assurance of such a result. Whether New Mexico is to be Democratic or Republican, the question of admission should be considered on its merits alone, and undoubtedly will be by a Republican Congress. We predict that New Mexico will become a state before the close of the present administration. And bordered by such great and progressive states as Colorado and Texas, and favorably located to receive the overflow that is already pressing westward from and across Arkansas, Missouri and Kansas, it will in a few years become one of the most valuable members of the Union.

PROGRESS AT THE SOUTH.

The growth of business at the South makes less impression upon the people of the North than that of the West, because the section is near the seaboard and maintains its own outlets, and also because it is learning to manufacture its own raw materials instead of sending them to our factories. There is accordingly less interchange and reciprocity with the South than with that great section which has been settled by our own neighbors, who naturally seek a market through channels with which we are familiar and which are managed with more or less profit to our people. The South is a section by itself, whose interests are less a subject of concern to us than even those of the distant Pacific states, which were practically inaccessible to the East for years after the war.

But the South is growing at a rate the effect of which must soon be felt through the nation at large, and we are given periodical glimpses of its progress through its business papers. The account given by the Baltimore Manufacturers Record for this week is very interesting. The crops of the season have been exceptionally heavy, and farmers are less in debt than at any time since the war. Southern crops are estimated at $125,000,000 more value than those of 1888, though last year's record was the largest ever before made. Eleven thousand new industrial establishments have been started, covering every line of manufacture from pins to locomotives, and over 8,000 miles of railroad have been built. Among the crops of the last three years have been 21,500,000 bales of cotton, 1,500,000,000 bushels of corn, 150,000,000 bushels of wheat and 240,000,000 bushels of oats. The value of these and other agricultural products is reckoned at $2,500,000,000, or an average of over $830,000,000 a year.

Since 1879 the railroads of the South have been extended more than 20,000 miles, at an outlay of over $800,000,000. Since 1880 the assessed value of property has increased more than $1,300,000,000. In 1880 the South made 397,301 tons of pig iron, in 1888 more than 1,100,000 tons, and in 1889 the production will amount to 1,500,000 tons. The output of coal has grown from 6,048,571 tons in 1880 to 23,000,000 tons in 1889; cotton mills have increased from 161 mills with 14,323 looms and 667,854 spindles in 1880 to 355 mills with 45,000 looms and 2,035,000 spindles in 1889; the 40 cotton seed oil mills with a capital of $3,500,000 in 1880 have grown to 263 mills with more than $20,000,000 capital in 1889.

Verily, the South is "getting on" at a very satisfactory rate. This progress cannot continue many years without the assertion by business of supremacy over politics. The curse of the South has been the ambition of its leading men to live upon politics, to feed upon the national or state treasury. But the section is now being possessed by a people who are acting upon the conviction that it is nobler, manlier, more profitable and more self-satisfying to live by business and grow rich from the development of the magnificent natural resources of the country.

HILL IN 1885 VS. HILL IN 1889.

The Tribune quotes against the Governor the following passage which it finds in his message addressed to the Legislature in 1885:

It is suggested that provision be made by law for the appointment of a competent person to act as counsel for the Legislature during its session who shall receive a reasonable compensation, to be paid by the state, whose duty shall be, at the request of any member, to prepare any measure desired to be introduced in either house, to give legal advice in reference to proposed legislation to the members and the various committees and to inspect the various bills before their final passage in order to detect errors and imperfections and to suggest the necessary amendments and generally to act as the legal adviser of the Legislature.

The Committee on General Laws this year employed counsel to assist it exactly as the Governor advised in 1885, but among the items vetoed in the appropriation bills was the one for the payment of this counsel. The Governor gave as his reason for vetoing the appropriation that six of the seven members of the committee were lawyers. The Governor must have changed his opinion since 1885, when he had a personal favorite from Elmira for whom he wished to provide a remunerative job during the winter. The item that the Governor vetoed will be paid, though the claimant will probably cause a bill of costs to be made for the state to pay before he gets it.

KEEP IN THE MIDDLE.

Shall the Beneficiaries of Our Over-Liberal Laws Become Our Dictators?

[From the Buffalo News.]

This seems to be a good time to remind the Democrats of New York state and their somewhat effusive allies recently represented in convention at Rochester, of a piece of negro minstrel advice—"Keep in de middle ob de road." It is one of the wisest sayings ever uttered in jest.

Just now it is particularly pertinent. There appears to be a disposition on the part of some of the people representing the liquor interests in this state to do more than protect their clients from unreasonable interference. They are apparently willing to be suspected of a purpose to run the politics of one of the great parties. The Democratic convention call adopted at Saratoga recently gave color to the belief, on the other hand, that the Democracy are willing to be so guided.

Perhaps all this is meant, with that overdeep subtlety which is sometimes the very confusion of "smart" politicians, to tempt the Republican leaders into taking a dangerous position in the coming canvass. It looks, however, more like the insolence of an element which Gov. Hill has found very useful in the past, but which may be too demonstrative in its friendship to benefit him.

It may mean a good deal more than that. It may mean a permanent loss to the Democracy of thousands of votes that have helped the party in its fight against oppressive blue laws, but are sensitive to what is termed, not inaptly, saloon dictation. No sentiment has been appealed to with more success than the liberal one that every man is responsible to his own conscience for his private enjoyments, so long as he does not injure others; that morals, in the matter of eating and drinking, are not to be regulated by law so long as the peace is not broken. But there is a quick recoil when the beneficiaries of this liberality seek to be dictators in public affairs. A "saloon convention" can do far more harm, in the matter of votes, to its friends than to its enemies.

We have come upon very dull days in politics, when there is no commanding issue to divide parties. With slavery and reconstruction the strong moral issues died out. We had such a lull before the slavery issue recast the whole face of American affairs. Then the insolence of the South drove into the anti-slavery ranks thousands of northerners who would have protected the "peculiar institution" as a matter of property right. Now the insolence of the "saloon convention" may do similar damage to its friends. The protectors of personal rights may be made enemies of liquor politics.

It behooves Gov. Hill to warn his friends, in the homely language quoted, to "keep in de middle ob de road."

PUBLIC OPINION.

The rerating of Gen. Manderson's pension by Commissioner Tanner calls forth all sorts of condemnation from the Democratic newspaper. When Democratic Commissioner Black rerated Democratic Congressman Morrison's pension and gave him back pay to the amount of about six thousand dollars, Democratic newspapers thought it was all right, and certain it is that Republican newspapers didn't pitch into the Commissioner or the pensioner because they were Democrats. That sort of demagogic small potatoes is the exclusive property of the organs that allude to old soldiers as "four beggars in blue."—Buffalo News.

Every day news comes of more outrages perpetrated in the South against colored citizens. Even peaceful preachers of the Gospel calmly pursuing their way to a religious convention were assaulted and beaten because they dared to ride in a railway car in which were white passengers. Whippings and assassinations in Louisiana and Mississippi are of daily occurrence.—New York Graphic.

The case of Dr. Morasse, of Southbridge, against the priest of Notre Dame Church, in which the doctor received $1,500 damages because of his ex-communication and denunciation by the priest and the consequent ruin of his practice, indicates that in this country, at least, men have civil rights which the Catholic church is bound to respect.—Springfield Union.

On the whole, Mr. Sullivan of Massachusetts might be a more useful Member of Congress than Mr. Kilgore of Texas.—Providence Journal, Dem.

CURRENT HUMOR.

"Doctor," said Sokher, "How would you treat a man who was subject to dipsomania?" "I wouldn't treat him at all," replied the doctor, after a moment's consideration; "treating is the bane of our civilization." And the applicant for information paid the usual fee and left the office.

Tommy—"I'm going to tell ma you pushed me overboard." Little Johnnie—"You'd better not." Tommy—"She'll lick me if I say I fell over." Little Johnnie—"That's what you'd better tell her. If you put the blame on me I'll lick you, and I'll hurt you more than mother will."

Old maid, singing—"I would I were a bird!" Bad boy—"I know one bird you can't be!" Old maid—"What is that, you wicked thing?" Bad boy—"A chicken. I heard dad say you were no chicken, yesterday."

Willie (who has eaten his apple)—"Mabel, let's play Adam and Eve. You be Eve and I'll be Adam." Mabel—"All right! Well?" Willie—"Now you tempt me to eat your apple and I'll succumb."

Smith—"Look here, Brown, we'll soon decide the matter; let's ask the waiter. Waiter, are tomatoes a fruit or a vegetable?" Waiter—"Neither, sir; tomatoes is a hextra."

Widow Flapjack—"Are you superstitious, Mr. DeSmith?" Gus DeSmith—"Not at all." "Then I don't mind telling you. That's the thirteenth biscuit you've eaten to-night."

Minnie—It is no longer fashionable to have the ears pierced.

Mamie—So I suppose you won't be called upon any more to sing, will you, dear?

A Chicago paper says the danger line is passed as regards the corn crop. Not at all. The danger line will only be reached when the corn is manufactured into whisky.

Oyster suppers are appropriate only for months which have an R in them, and for pocketbooks which have a V in them.

What They Want.

[New York Independent.]

What these political Prohibitionists evidently desire is that both of the old parties vacate and give them the premises. An old Mississippi darky wished that everybody were dead so that he could keep store. But everybody wouldn't die just to accommodate him, and neither of the old parties shows any signs of dying off in order that the third party may begin political housekeeping. In plain English the Syracuse platform is this:

1. We are Probitionists.
2. We want a constitutional Prohibition amendment.
3. But we protest against a Republican Legislature submitting it.
4. We protest against a Democratic Legislature submitting it.
5. It is utterly impossible for us to submit it.
6. But we demand constitutional Prohibition.

SHALL NEW MEXICO COME IN?

There are good and sufficient reasons why there should be no unseemly haste about admitting New Mexico as a state.—Boston Journal, Rep.

The "good and sufficient reason" is that the territory has a Democratic majority. According to the Journal's ideas no territory should be admitted as a state until there is at least a reasonable chance that it will elect Republican Senators.—Boston Globe, Dem.

The objection to New Mexico in the minds of many is the character of its population. It is largely Mexican, and a long way in the rear of American civilization. The people do not understand our language, and even in their elections for delegates to Congress vote tickets printed in the Spanish language. They are clannish, ignorant and bigoted. In religion they have hardly got away from the ideas and practices that prevailed in Spain in the days of the Inquisition. They do not make desirable citizens, and while they can neither be exterminated nor banished, there is a prevailing opinion that it would not be wise to enlarge their political powers.

We are disposed to question this opinion. There is nothing among these people to shock the moral sense like Mormonism and its polygamy. The objections that are effective against Utah cannot be urged against New Mexico at all. They are a people much like those of which a considerable portion of the population of many of our cities and some of our states is composed, aliens by descent and language. These people generally make good citizens; there are perhaps more vicious and unworthy ones among them in proportion to the whole than among the native population, but their viciousness does not affect the government because they are not in the majority. New Mexico has no more vice and crime than the city of New York; we are not sure that it has more ignorance, clannishness and bigotry. And yet New York, with its immense population, wealth and enterprise, holds a very small place in the government of the Union. There is nothing to fear from the admission of New Mexico, with its population of 160,000, a four hundredth part of the whole. The great American nation can take care of it and keep its people in their place.

The benefit of admitting New Mexico to the Union would accrue mainly to the new state itself. It would encourage immigration from the older states. On the day of admission there would be a rush to it like that to Oklahoma last spring. The present ignorant, idle and vicious elements would either become absorbed into the new population or soon brought into subjection to it. Partisan considerations should not weigh a moment against the assurance of such a result. Whether New Mexico is to be Democratic or Republican, the question of admission should be considered on its merits alone, and undoubtedly will be by a Republican Congress. We predict that New Mexico will become a state before the close of the present administration. And bordered by such great and progressive states as Colorado and Texas, and favorably located to receive the overflow that is already pressing westward from and across Arkansas, Missouri and Kansas, it will in a few years become one of the most valuable members of the Union.

PROGRESS AT THE SOUTH.

The growth of business at the South makes less impression upon the people of the North than that of the West, because the section is near the seaboard and maintains its own outlets, and also because it is learning to manufacture its own raw materials instead of sending them to our factories. There is accordingly less interchange and reciprocity with the South than with that great section which has been settled by our own neighbors, who naturally seek a market through channels with which we are familiar and which are managed with more or less profit to our people. The South is a section by itself, whose interests are less a subject of concern to us than even those of the distant Pacific states, which were practically inaccessible to the East for years after the war.

But the South is growing at a rate the effect of which must soon be felt through the nation at large, and we are given periodical glimpses of its progress through its business papers. The account given by the Baltimore Manufacturers Record for this week is very interesting. The crops of the season have been exceptionally heavy, and farmers are less in debt than at any time since the war. Southern crops are estimated at $125,000,000 more value than those of 1888, though last year's record was the largest ever before made. Eleven thousand new industrial establishments have been started, covering every line of manufacture from pins to locomotives, and over 8,000 miles of railroad have been built. Among the crops of the last three years have been 21,500,000 bales of cotton, 1,500,000,000 bushels of corn, 150,000,000 bushels of wheat and 240,000,000 bushels of oats. The value of these and other agricultural products is reckoned at $2,500,000,000, or an average of over $830,000,000 a year.

Since 1879 the railroads of the South have been extended more than 20,000 miles, at an outlay of over $800,000,000. Since 1880 the assessed value of property has increased more than $1,300,000,000. In 1880 the South made 397,301 tons of pig iron, in 1888 more than 1,100,000 tons, and in 1889 the production will amount to 1,500,000 tons. The output of coal has grown from 6,048,571 tons in 1880 to 23,000,000 tons in 1889; cotton mills have increased from 161 mills with 14,323 looms and 667,854 spindles in 1880 to 355 mills with 45,000 looms and 2,035,000 spindles in 1889; the 40 cotton seed oil mills with a capital of $3,500,000 in 1880 have grown to 263 mills with more than $20,000,000 capital in 1889.

Verily, the South is "getting on" at a very satisfactory rate. This progress cannot continue many years without the assertion by business of supremacy over politics. The curse of the South has been the ambition of its leading men to live upon politics, to feed upon the national or state treasury. But the section is now being possessed by a people who are acting upon the conviction that it is nobler, manlier, more profitable and more self-satisfying to live by business and grow rich from the development of the magnificent natural resources of the country.

HILL IN 1885 VS. HILL IN 1889.

The Tribune quotes against the Governor the following passage which it finds in his message addressed to the Legislature in 1885:

It is suggested that provision be made by law for the appointment of a competent person to act as counsel for the Legislature during its session who shall receive a reasonable compensation, to be paid by the state, whose duty shall be, at the request of any member, to prepare any measure desired to be introduced in either house, to give legal advice in reference to proposed legislation to the members and the various committees and to inspect the various bills before their final passage in order to detect errors and imperfections and to suggest the necessary amendments and generally to act as the legal adviser of the Legislature.

The Committee on General Laws this year employed counsel to assist it exactly as the Governor advised in 1885, but among the items vetoed in the appropriation bills was the one for the payment of this counsel. The Governor gave as his reason for vetoing the appropriation that six of the seven members of the committee were lawyers. The Governor must have changed his opinion since 1885, when he had a personal favorite from Elmira for whom he wished to provide a remunerative job during the winter. The item that the Governor vetoed will be paid, though the claimant will probably cause a bill of costs to be made for the state to pay before he gets it.

KEEP IN THE MIDDLE.

Shall the Beneficiaries of Our Over-Liberal Laws Become Our Dictators?

[From the Buffalo News.]

This seems to be a good time to remind the Democrats of New York state and their somewhat effusive allies recently represented in convention at Rochester, of a piece of negro minstrel advice—"Keep in de middle ob de road." It is one of the wisest sayings ever uttered in jest.

Just now it is particularly pertinent. There appears to be a disposition on the part of some of the people representing the liquor interests in this state to do more than protect their clients from unreasonable interference. They are apparently willing to be suspected of a purpose to run the politics of one of the great parties. The Democratic convention call adopted at Saratoga recently gave color to the belief, on the other hand, that the Democracy are willing to be so guided.

Perhaps all this is meant, with that over-deep subtlety which is sometimes the very confusion of "smart" politicians, to tempt the Republican leaders into taking a dangerous position in the coming canvass. It looks, however, more like the insolence of an element which Gov. Hill has found very useful in the past, but which may be too demonstrative in its friendship to benefit him.

It may mean a good deal more than that. It may mean a permanent loss to the Democracy of thousands of votes that have helped the party in its fight against oppressive blue laws, but are sensitive to what is termed, not inaptly, saloon dictation. No sentiment has been appealed to with more success than the liberal one that every man is responsible to his own conscience for his private enjoyments, so long as he does not injure others; that morals, in the matter of eating and drinking, are not to be regulated by law so long as the peace is not broken. But there is a quick recoil when the beneficiaries of this liberality seek to be dictators in public affairs. A "saloon convention" can do far more harm, in the matter of votes, to its friends than to its enemies.

We have come upon very dull days in politics, when there is no commanding issue to divide parties. With slavery and reconstruction the strong moral issues died out. We had such a lull before the slavery issue recast the whole face of American affairs. Then the insolence of the South drove into the anti-slavery ranks thousands of northerners who would have protected the "peculiar institution" as a matter of property right. Now the insolence of the "saloon convention" may do similar damage to its friends. The protectors of personal rights may be made enemies of liquor politics.

It behooves Gov. Hill to warn his friends, in the homely language quoted, to "keep in de middle ob de road."

PUBLIC OPINION.

The rerating of Gen. Manderson's pension by Commissioner Tanner calls forth all sorts of condemnation from the Democratic newspaper. When Democratic Commissioner Black rerated Democratic Congressman Morrison's pension and gave him back pay to the amount of about six thousand dollars, Democratic newspapers thought it was all right, and certain it is that Republican newspapers didn't pitch into the Commissioner or the pensioner because they were Democrats. That sort of demagogic small potatoes is the exclusive property of the organs that allude to old soldiers as "four beggars in blue."—Buffalo News.

Every day news comes of more outrages perpetrated in the South against colored citizens. Even peaceful preachers of the Gospel calmly pursuing their way to a religious convention were assaulted and beaten because they dared to ride in a railway car in which were white passengers. Whippings and assassinations in Louisiana and Mississippi are of daily occurrence.—New York Graphic.

The case of Dr. Morasse, of Southbridge, against the priest of Notre Dame Church, in which the doctor received $1,500 damages because of his ex-communication and denunciation by the priest and the consequent ruin of his practice, indicates that in this country, at least, men have civil rights which the Catholic church is bound to respect.—Springfield Union.

On the whole, Mr. Sullivan of Massachusetts might be a more useful Member of Congress than Mr. Kilgore of Texas.—Providence Journal, Dem.

CURRENT HUMOR.

"Doctor," said Sokker, "How would you treat a man who was subject to dipsomania?" "I wouldn't treat him at all," replied the doctor, after a moment's consideration; "treating is the bane of our civilization." And the applicant for information paid the usual fee and left the office.

Tommy—"I'm going to tell ma you pushed me overboard." Little Johnnie—"You'd better not." Tommy—"She'll lick me if I say I fell over." Little Johnnie—"That's what you'd better tell her. If you put the blame on me I'll lick you, and I'll hurt you more than mother will."

Old maid, singing—"I would I were a bird!" Bad boy—"I know one bird you can't be!" Old maid—"What is that, you wicked thing?" Bad boy—"A chicken. I heard dad say you were no chicken, yesterday."

Willie (who has eaten his apple)—"Mabel, let's play Adam and Eve. You be Eve and I'll be Adam." Mabel—"All right! Well?" Willie—"Now you tempt me to eat your apple and I'll succumb."

Smith—"Look here, Brown, we'll soon decide the matter; let's ask the waiter. Waiter, are tomatoes a fruit or a vegetable?" Waiter—"Neither, sir; tomatoes is a hextra."

Widow Flapjack—"Are you superstitious, Mr. DeSmith?" Gus DeSmith—"Not at all." "Then I don't mind telling you. That's the thirteenth biscuit you've eaten to-night."

Minnie—It is no longer fashionable to have the ears pierced.
Mamie—So I suppose you won't be called upon any more to sing, will you, dear?

A Chicago paper says the danger line is passed as regards the corn crop. Not at all. The danger line will only be reached when the corn is manufactured into whisky.

Oyster suppers are appropriate only for months which have an R in them, and for pocketbooks which have a V in them.

What They Want.

[New York Independent.]

What these political Prohibitionists evidently desire is that both of the old parties vacate and give them the premises. An old Mississippi darky wished that everybody were dead so that he could keep store. But everybody wouldn't die just to accommodate him, and neither of the old parties shows any signs of dying off in order that the third party may begin political housekeeping. In plain English the Syracuse platform is this:

1. We are Prohibitionists.
2. We want a constitutional Prohibition amendment.
3. But we protest against a Republican Legislature submitting it.
4. We protest against a Democratic Legislature submitting it.
5. It is utterly impossible for us to submit it.
6. But we demand constitutional Prohibition.

SHALL NEW MEXICO COME IN?

There are good and sufficient reasons why there should be no unseemly haste about admitting New Mexico as a state.—Boston Journal, Rep.

The "good and sufficient reason" is that the territory has a Democratic majority. According to the Journal's ideas no territory should be admitted as a state until there is at least a reasonable chance that it will elect Republican Senators.—Boston Globe, Dem.

The objection to New Mexico in the minds of many is the character of its population. It is largely Mexican, and a long way in the rear of American civilization. The people do not understand our language, and even in their elections for delegates to Congress vote tickets printed in the Spanish language. They are clannish, ignorant and bigoted. In religion they have hardly got away from the ideas and practices that prevailed in Spain in the days of the Inquisition. They do not make desirable citizens, and while they can neither be exterminated nor banished, there is a prevailing opinion that it would not be wise to enlarge their political powers.

We are disposed to question this opinion. There is nothing among these people to shock the moral sense like Mormonism and its polygamy. The objections that are effective against Utah cannot be urged against New Mexico at all. They are a people much like those of which a considerable portion of the population of many of our cities and some of our states is composed, aliens by descent and language. These people generally make good citizens; there are perhaps more vicious and unworthy ones among them in proportion to the whole than among the native population, but their viciousness does not affect the government because they are not in the majority. New Mexico has no more vice and crime than the city of New York; we are not sure that it has more ignorance, clannishness and bigotry. And yet New York, with its immense population, wealth and enterprise, holds a very small place in the government of the Union. There is nothing to fear from the admission of New Mexico, with its population of 160,000, a four hundredth part of the whole. The great American nation can take care of it and keep its people in their place.

The benefit of admitting New Mexico to the Union would accrue mainly to the new state itself. It would encourage immigration from the older states. On the day of admission there would be a rush to it like that to Oklahoma last spring. The present ignorant, idle and vicious elements would either become absorbed into the new population or soon brought into subjection to it. Partisan considerations should not weigh a moment against the assurance of such a result. Whether New Mexico is to be Democratic or Republican, the question of admission should be considered on its merits alone, and undoubtedly will be by a Republican Congress. We predict that New Mexico will become a state before the close of the present administration. And bordered by such great and progressive states as Colorado and Texas, and favorably located to receive the overflow that is already pressing westward from and across Arkansas, Missouri and Kansas, it will in a few years become one of the most valuable members of the Union.

PROGRESS AT THE SOUTH.

The growth of business at the South makes less impression upon the people of the North than that of the West, because the section is near the seaboard and maintains its own outlets, and also because it is learning to manufacture its own raw materials instead of sending them to our factories. There is accordingly less interchange and reciprocity with the South than with that great section which has been settled by our own neighbors, who naturally seek a market through channels with which we are familiar and which are managed with more or less profit to our people. The South is a section by itself, whose interests are less a subject of concern to us than even those of the distant Pacific states, which were practically inaccessible to the East for years after the war.

But the South is growing at a rate the effect of which must soon be felt through the nation at large, and we are given periodical glimpses of its progress through its business papers. The account given by the Baltimore Manufacturers Record for this week is very interesting. The crops of the season have been exceptionally heavy, and farmers are less in debt than at any time since the war. Southern crops are estimated at $125,000,000 more value than those of 1888, though last year's record was the largest ever before made. Eleven thousand new industrial establishments have been started, covering every line of manufacture from pins to locomotives, and over 8,000 miles of railroad have been built. Among the crops of the last three years have been 21,500,000 bales of cotton, 1,500,000,000 bushels of corn, 150,000,000 bushels of wheat and 240,000,000 bushels of oats. The value of these and other agricultural products is reckoned at $2,500,000,000, or an average of over $830,000,000 a year.

Since 1879 the railroads of the South have been extended more than 20,000 miles, at an outlay of over $800,000,000. Since 1880 the assessed value of property has increased more than $1,300,000,000. In 1880 the South made 397,301 tons of pig iron, in 1888 more than 1,100,000 tons, and in 1889 the production will amount to 1,500,000 tons. The output of coal has grown from 6,048,571 tons in 1880 to 23,000,000 tons in 1889; cotton mills have increased from 161 mills with 14,323 looms and 667,854 spindles in 1880 to 355 mills with 45,000 looms and 2,035,000 spindles in 1889; the 40 cotton seed oil mills with a capital of $3,500,000 in 1880 have grown to 263 mills with more than $20,000,000 capital in 1889.

Verily, the South is "getting on" at a very satisfactory rate. This progress cannot continue many years without the assertion by business of supremacy over politics. The curse of the South has been the ambition of its leading men to live upon politics, to feed upon the national or state treasury. But the section is now being possessed by a people who are acting upon the conviction that it is nobler, manlier, more profitable and more self-satisfying to live by business and grow rich from the development of the magnificent natural resources of the country.

HILL IN 1885 VS. HILL IN 1889.

The Tribune quotes against the Governor the following passage which it finds in his message addressed to the Legislature in 1885:

It is suggested that provision be made by law for the appointment of a competent person to act as counsel for the Legislature during its session who shall receive a reasonable compensation, to be paid by the state, whose duty shall be, at the request of any member, to prepare any measure desired to be introduced in either house, to give legal advice in reference to proposed legislation to the members and the various committees and to inspect the various bills before their final passage in order to detect errors and imperfections and to suggest the necessary amendments and generally to act as the legal adviser of the Legislature.

The Committee on General Laws this year employed counsel to assist it exactly as the Governor advised in 1885, but among the items vetoed in the appropriation bills was the one for the payment of this counsel. The Governor gave as his reason for vetoing the appropriation that six of the seven members of the committee were lawyers. The Governor must have changed his opinion since 1885, when he had a personal favorite from Elmira for whom he wished to provide a remunerative job during the winter. The item that the Governor vetoed will be paid, though the claimant will probably cause a bill of costs to be made for the state to pay before he gets it.

KEEP IN THE MIDDLE.

Shall the Beneficiaries of Our Over-Liberal Laws Become Our Dictators?

[From the Buffalo News.]

This seems to be a good time to remind the Democrats of New York state and their somewhat effusive allies recently represented in convention at Rochester, of a piece of negro minstrel advice—"Keep in de middle ob de road." It is one of the wisest sayings ever uttered in jest.

Just now it is particularly pertinent. There appears to be a disposition on the part of some of the people representing the liquor interests in this state to do more than protect their clients from unreasonable interference. They are apparently willing to be suspected of a purpose to run the politics of one of the great parties. The Democratic convention call adopted at Saratoga recently gave color to the belief, on the other hand, that the Democracy are willing to be so guided.

Perhaps all this is meant, with that overdeep subtlety which is sometimes the very confusion of "smart" politicians, to tempt the Republican leaders into taking a dangerous position in the coming canvass. It looks, however, more like the insolence of an element which Gov. Hill has found very useful in the past, but which may be too demonstrative in its friendship to benefit him.

It may mean a good deal more than that. It may mean a permanent loss to the Democracy of thousands of votes that have helped the party in its fight against oppressive blue laws, but are sensitive to what is termed, not inaptly, saloon dictation. No sentiment has been appealed to with more success than the liberal one that every man is responsible to his own conscience for his private enjoyments, so long as he does not injure others; that morals, in the matter of eating and drinking, are not to be regulated by law so long as the peace is not broken. But there is a quick recoil when the beneficiaries of this liberality seek to be dictators in public affairs. A "saloon convention" can do far more harm, in the matter of votes, to its friends than to its enemies.

We have come upon very dull days in politics, when there is no commanding issue to divide parties. With slavery and reconstruction the strong moral issues died out. We had such a lull before the slavery issue recast the whole face of American affairs. Then the insolence of the South drove into the anti-slavery ranks thousands of northerners who would have protected the "peculiar institution" as a matter of property right. Now the insolence of the "saloon convention" may do similar damage to its friends. The protectors of personal rights may be made enemies of liquor politics.

It behooves Gov. Hill to warn his friends, in the homely language quoted, to "keep in de middle ob de road."

PUBLIC OPINION.

The rerating of Gen. Manderson's pension by Commissioner Tanner calls forth all sorts of condemnation from the Democratic newspaper. When Democratic Commissioner Black rerated Democratic Congressman Morrison's pension and gave him back pay to the amount of about six thousand dollars, Democratic newspapers thought it was all right, and certain it is that Republican newspapers didn't pitch into the Commissioner or the pensioner because they were Democrats. That sort of demagogic small potatoes is the exclusive property of the organs that allude to old soldiers as "four beggars in blue."—Buffalo News.

Every day news comes of more outrages perpetrated in the South against colored citizens. Even peaceful preachers of the Gospel calmly pursuing their way to a religious convention were assaulted and beaten because they dared to ride in a railway car in which were white passengers. Whippings and assassinations in Louisiana and Mississippi are of daily occurrence.—New York Graphic.

The case of Dr. Morasse, of Southbridge, against the priest of Notre Dame Church, in which the doctor received $1,500 damages because of his ex-communication and denunciation by the priest and the consequent ruin of his practice, indicates that in this country, at least, men have civil rights which the Catholic church is bound to respect.—Springfield Union.

On the whole, Mr. Sullivan of Massachusetts might be a more useful Member of Congress than Mr. Kilgore of Texas.—Providence Journal, Dem.

CURRENT HUMOR.

"Doctor," said Sokher, "How would you treat a man who was subject to dipsomania?" "I wouldn't treat him at all," replied the doctor, after a moment's consideration; "treating is the bane of our civilization." And the applicant for information paid the usual fee and left the office.

Tommy—"I'm going to tell ma you pushed me overboard." Little Johnnie—"You'd better not." Tommy—"She'll lick me if I say I fell over." Little Johnnie—"That's what you'd better tell her. If you put the blame on me I'll lick you, and I'll hurt you more than mother will."

Old maid, singing—"I would I were a bird!" Bay boy—"I know one bird you can't be!" Old maid—"What is that, you wicked thing?" Bad boy—"A chicken. I heard dad say you were no chicken, yesterday."

Willie (who has eaten his apple)—"Mabel, let's play Adam and Eve. You be Eve and I'll be Adam." Mabel—"All right! Well?" Willie—"Now you tempt me to eat your apple and I'll succumb."

Smith—"Look here, Brown, we'll soon decide the matter; let's ask the waiter. Waiter, are tomatoes a fruit or a vegetable?" Waiter—"Neither, sir; tomatoes is a hextra."

Widow Flapjack—"Are you superstitious, Mr. DeSmith?" Gus DeSmith—"Not at all." "Then I don't mind telling you. That's the thirteenth biscuit you've eaten to-night."

Minnie—It is no longer fashionable to have the ears pierced.

Mamie—So I suppose you won't be called upon any more to sing, will you, dear?

A Chicago paper says the danger line is passed as regards the corn crop. Not at all. The danger line will only be reached when the corn is manufactured into whisky.

Oyster suppers are appropriate only for months which have an R in them, and for pocketbooks which have a V in them.

What They Want.

[New York Independent.]

What these political Prohibitionists evidently desire is that both of the old parties vacate and give them the premises. An old Mississippi darky wished that everybody were dead so that he could keep store. But everybody wouldn't die just to accommodate him, and neither of the old parties shows any signs of dying off in order that the third party may begin political housekeeping. In plain English the Syracuse platform is this:

1. We are Prohibitionists.
2. We want a constitutional Prohibition amendment.
3. But we protest against a Republican Legislature submitting it.
4. We protest against a Democratic Legislature submitting it.
5. It is utterly impossible for us to submit it.
6. But we demand constitutional Prohibition.

SKIN CANCER.

Several years ago I was called to see a colored woman who had a malignant form of cancer on her foot. The cancer grew worse under the prescribed treatment, and the toes and one side of the foot were at length eaten entirely away. The patient could not have survived much longer, but I commenced the use of Swift's Specific, and it cured her sound and well. That was three years ago, and there has been no return of the disease. I regard Swift's Specific a most excellent medicine for blood diseases, as its tendency is to drive out the poison. WM. E. STAGG, M. D. Matherville, Miss.

CANCER OF THE TONGUE.

For three or four years I had an eating sore on my tongue that made a considerable hole in it. I became alarmed at its progress, and went to Atlanta for treatment. The result was that I commenced the use of Swift's Specific, and the sore was soon gone, without a trace of it left. A. LEWIS, Thomaston, Ga., Mar. 14, '89.

The Mango Weevil—Judges Have a Hard Time of It in Russia—Military Preparations in Morocco—Crete is Now Quiet—The Loss by Fire at Antwerp, Etc.

A correspondent writes: "The extraordinary pearl fever which has broken out in Wisconsin, in consequence of the discovery of pearls in the rivers of that State, reminds one who chances to know of it of the fact that there was formerly a man in Boston who supported himself by finding pearls in that neighborhood. He was a briefless barrister, his name being, I believe, Lovell. He was fond of angling, albeit I have never been informed whether there is any connection between this fact and smallness of his business connection. On one occasion, when he was fishing in a stream not very far from town, he opened a fresh-water clam for bait and therein discovered a pearl which he afterward sold to a Boston jeweller for $30, a sum which was in those days of greater magnitude than at present. This was so much more money than he had made at the law for a very considerable time that he was encouraged to continue to hunt for pearls in a literal rather than in a figurative sense, and to look rather to clams than to law for a living. In the end he came to devoting his entire time to pearl hunting, and so successful was he that he managed not only to make a living but to lay up enough with which to buy a farm on Cape Cod, whither he retired to pass the latter portion of his days. He became something of a hermit, and was known on the Cape as 'Lawyer Lovell.' His trade has never, so far as I am aware, been taken up there, and as the streams are, for the most part, still open, there is an opportunity for some mortal who likes an out-of-door life, is possessed of patience, and is not set upon accumulating too large a fortune."

The Supreme Lodge, Knights and Ladies of Honor, in session at Cleveland, Ohio, have elected the following officers: Supreme Protector, John T. Milburn, of Louisville, Ky.; Vice Supreme Protector, L. B. Lockard, of Bradford, Penn; Supreme Secretary, C. W. Harvey, of Indianapolis, Ind.; Supreme Treasurer, E. J. McBridge, of Indianapolis, Ind.; Supreme Chaplain, Mrs. Elvira Anderson, of St. Louis, Mo.; Supreme Guide, S. B. Breed, of Lynn, Mass.; Supreme Guardian, Mrs Ella M. Tame, of Akron, Ohio; Supreme Sentinel, T. J. Wood, Starkville, Miss; Supreme Medical Examiner, L. D. Wetherell, of Elmira, N. Y.; Board of Trustees, J. F. Drish, of Mattoon, Ill.; G. W. Cheek, of Louisville, Ky., and J. S. Anderson, of St. Louis.

"The military preparations which the Emperor of Morocco is making are exciting much attention in Spain," says the London St. James Gazette. "Considerable jealousy is shown because he employs French, Italian and German officers to drill his levies and to superintend his arsenals in preference to Spaniards. His visit to Tetuan and the northern provinces near the Mediterranean coast at the head of a well equipped force causes some anxiety, because the Spanish stations on the coasts are weakly garrisoned and badly provided with guns and fortifications. The Madrid papers urge the necessity of a more active policy in Morocco to prevent Spain from being ousted by other powers."

Mexico is exercised over the establishment of a mint in China. The Mexican silver dollar has for centuries been the standard coin of China and Asiatic commerce. France struck a blow at it by coining a silver dollar for its Tonquin possessions, and now China has established at Canton a mint having ninety coining presses, the largest mint in the world. This will strike a hard blow at Mexico's greatest industry, that of silver coining. It will open a new market for the silver bullion of the United States, and in that respect will be a gain for this country.

A new scheme has been concocted to catch the unwary granger. It is related that a clerical looking person, with a timid-looking young man and woman, recently drove up to a farm house and stated that the couple had taken a whimsical notion to be married among the handsome surroundings of the farmer's home and they would pay him liberally for the privilege. The farmer at once gave his consent and in addition served the trio with a fine dinner, for which he received $40, giving the parties a receipt. The receipt turned up in the hands of an innocent party as a promissory note for $400.

A dispatch from Shoshone, Idaho, says the agents looking up fraudulent land and water right entries are making important discoveries. The upper Blackfoot has been found to have natural meadows, covered by desert entries. On one tract of 11,000 acres claimed by prominent Utah Mormons, were found 10 mowing machines cutting thousands of tons of hay. Prosecutions are promised to place those lands back in the public domain, while examples will likely be made of some offenders charged with perjury.

Captain Van Ende, of the Dutch army has presented to the Bibliotheque Royale at Brussels his collection of about 500 coins of Indo-China. The series begins with some pieces of archaic type from Java, apparently before the influence of Buddhism, and includes examples of Mohammedan mints in Sumatra and the Malay Peninsula, and also the currency of the Dutch and English East India Companies.

J. Wray, Curator of the Museum of Perak, in the Malay Peninsula, communicates to Perak Government Gazette a note on the mango weevil, a pest which has lately excited some alarm in various parts of the East. Mr. Wray describes it as a small beetle infesting the mangoes in Perak, particularly the introduced varieties. It has been examined and found to be identical with the mango weevil of India.

"It is safe to say," declares the Asbury Park Daily Journal, "that there are to day 100 places in Asbury Park where liquor is unlawfully sold. Prohibition is in fact and in truth a dead letter here, but it is no fault of the law. By their apathy the people of this place have just as surely killed prohibition as as if they had gone to the polls and voted against it, for apathy is as bad as opposition."

One of the wonderful women of the Pine Tree State is Miss Dow, the invalid daughter of the veteran Neal Dow. For years she has been confined to her chair. During this time she has studied almost constantly and mastered the French, German, Spanish, Russian, and Greek languages. She recently repeated a long passage from her Greek Testament, verbatim a month after she had read it.

A question upon which opinion was much divided at the International Botanic Congress in Paris was whether the grains of corn found in the Egyptian sarcophagi had any seminal virtue left. It appears that most of the so-called mummy corn remarkable for streaks of tar on the surface, and sold to travellers in Egypt at the rate of about $1 per 25 grains, is a gross imposture.

Denmark for 25 years past has spent $50,000 yearly for the maintenance of dairy schools. As a result of the training the butter makers have received at this school the butter of the country has been so much improved in quality that within 20 years Denmark's exports of butter have increased from $2,100,000 to $13,000,000 per annum.

The Coroner's verdict on the death of the three persons killed by the bursting of the Spring Lake reservoir dam at Cranston, R. I., on August 28, declares that the dam was of defective construction, and, without directly placing the blame states that it was "erected, owned and controlled by the Pawtuxet Valley Water Company."

George Kennan, writing in the Century Magazine, tells of a valley in Siberia where the heat was as intense as that of an African desert, where he had to protect himself from the fierce sunshine by four thicknesses of blanket, yet had the premonitory symptoms of sunstroke in the strange feeling of faintness, nausea and suffocation.

It is queer, though it is a fact, that Ohio has 40,373 white voters unable to write; Pennsylvania, 65,885; New-York, 76,746. The men who can't read their ballots hold the balance of political power in these important states. The states reputed the most intelligent often vote as stupidly as the less wise.

There is a woman in Milwaukee, Wis., who is the mother of nine children. Not one of them was named until it was 12 years old. The were simply called by their nicknames and their numbers, "One." "Two," etc. When they were 12 years old each one choose his own name and was baptized.

SPORTS ON LAND AND WATER

SOME INTERESTING EVENTS THAT HAVE TAKEN PLACE WRITTEN UP.

The Base Ball Record—Winner of Trotting And Running Races—Searle Declines to Row Guadaur—Wheelmen, Sprinters—Notes-By-the-Wayside, Etc.

Sporting matters of general interest in various parts of the United States follow:

BASE BALL.

The following is the record of the League and Association clubs up to date:

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

| Clubs. | Won. | Lost. | P. Ct. | Clubs. | Won. | Lost. | P. Ct. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Boston | 70 | 38 | .648 | Cleveland | 53 | 60 | .469 |
| New-York | 68 | 40 | .630 | Indianapolis | 50 | 65 | .435 |
| Philadelphia | 58 | 51 | .532 | Pittsburg | 49 | 66 | .426 |
| Chicago | 58 | 56 | .509 | Washington | 38 | 68 | .358 |

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

| Clubs. | Won. | Lost. | P. Ct. | Clubs. | Won. | Lost. | P. Ct. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Brooklyn | 77 | 37 | .675 | Cincinnati | 61 | 56 | .521 |
| St. Louis | 72 | 41 | .637 | Kansas City | 48 | 67 | .417 |
| Baltimore | 64 | 47 | .577 | Columbus | 48 | 70 | .412 |
| Athletic | 62 | 48 | .564 | Louisville | 24 | 91 | .209 |

In an interview about the Brooklyn-St. Louis trouble, President Wykoff is reported as saying, in regard to expelling the latter team: "I consider that part of the constitution virtually a dead letter. It would be impossible to enforce it without carrying the matter to the courts, and there the case would not hold, as it would be compelling a man to give something for nothing. In regard to the whole matter I am very sorry that the difficulty has arisen, and I am anxious not to hold a meeting until both parties in the controversy have had time to cool down somewhat. The only action I have taken so far in the matter is to notify the respective clubs to stop paying the St. Louis team any guarantee or percentage, and in doing this I am simply following out Article 78 of the constitution."

The Chicago club won the pennant in 1876, Boston in 1877 and 1878, Providence in 1879, Chicago in 1880, 1881 and 1882, Boston in 1883, Providence in 1884, Chicago in 1885 and 1886, Detroit in 1887, and New-York in 1888. Indianapolis has been in the League four seasons, including the present one. The team was in last place in 1887, and in seventh place in 1888.

Result of yesterday's ball games: National League—At Boston—Boston 3, Cleveland 2, first game. Boston 5, Cleveland 0, second game. American Association—At Columbus—Columbus 12, Cincinnati 1.

All the clubs in the American Association have been notified not to pay St. Louis any part of gate receipts until Van der Ahe has paid that $3,000 fine to Brooklyn.

James McAleer, the clever centre fielder of the Clevelands, is at his home in Youngstown, Ohio, suffering from torn ligaments in his left ankle.

Alexander Jones, formerly of the Homestead, Pa., club, has signed with the Columbus team. He is left-handed and said to be a "phenomenon."

According to a statement made by President Brush, the Indianapolis Club will surely be represented in the League next year.

On Monday the Cuban Giants will play at Hudson. The club's record to date is won, 104; lost, 28; tie, 3. Total 136.

The St. Louis-Brooklyn embroglio is creating much disaffected talk in base ball circles.

Wagerhurst, for a short time with the New-Yorks, will study law the coming winter.

In all but two out of 22 consecutive games has Bennett failed to reach first base on balls.

There are two lawyers numbered among the Giants—Ward and O'Rourke.

Marr, of the Columbus team, leads the Association in three-base hits.

Syracuse was the first International club to play 100 championship games.

John Clarkson pitched two magnificent games of ball yesterday.

Recently McKean, of the Clevelands, muffed his first ball of the season.

HORSE NOTES.

The winners at Sheepshead Bay yesterday were as follows: Three-quarters of a mile for two year olds, for a sweepstakes of $150 each for starters with $5,000 added, G. Heart's Tournament won in 1:17. The Racing stakes, distance one mile, entrance fee $50, with $1,250 added, McClelland & Roche's Badge won in 1:48. D. A. Honig's Cartoon won the seven eighths of a mile scamper in 1:39. Oarman Gregory and Bellwood were the other winners.

At the Queen City Full Mile Driving Club's meeting at Cincinnati yesterday Pointer was the winner in the 2:35 class. Best time 2:26. In the 2:24 class Lottie W. won. Best time 2:21. In the 2:27 class Realty won in three straight heats. Best time 2:23¼. Guy made an effort to beat the time of Maud S.—2:08¾—for a purse of $5,000. It made the mile in 2:12, several seconds behind.

The inaugural meeting of the Exposition Driving Park Association opened in Kansas City yesterday. In the 2:48 class for a purse of $1,000, Dick Smith won in three straight heats. Best time 2:38¼. In the 2:24 pacing race, purse $700, Wonder won, John B. second. Best time 2:32.

At the race course in Sacramento, Cal., yesterday the three-year-old filly Sunlo won the Occidental stakes and made a trotting record of 2:16½ for a mile.

Hook & Clay have sold the three-year-old gray filly Abbie V., by Aberdeen, dam Maid of Windsor, to Charles Miller, of Cincinnati, for $7,000.

The Island Park trots have been postponed on account of the unfavorable weather.

GENERAL WHEELING NOTES.

Nearly all the wheelmen who are to attend the Seventh Annual Meet of the New-York State Division of the League of American Wheelmen, which is to take place to-morrow, have arrived at New-York City. Among the clubs represented from out-of town are the Albany, Rochester, Buffalo, Syracuse and Pathfinder, of Cooperstown. A number of wheelmen from Philadelphia and Bridgeport, Conn., are expected to-night. The Riverside Wheelmen have open house to-day at their club-house, 138 West One Hundred and Fourth-street, where the visiting wheelmen are being entertained.

A. Irving Fuller, of Rome, N. Y., has entered the ranks of the professionals under the training of W. C. Chapin, Captain of the Syracuse Cycling Club.

On election day the 10-mile handicap road race of the Elizabeth, N. J., wheelmen will take place. It is a championship event.

W. C. Hydecker, of the New-York Bicycle Club, is in training for his race with F. Stayer on September 21.

There is some talk of holding a great two days' tournament in Boston next month.

The road race of the Capital City Wheelmen has been postponed.

ATHLETES.

John F. Owen, Jr., the Detroit Athletic Club's great sprinter, who recently won a 100-yard race in 9 4-5 seconds, will compete in the championship meeting at Travers Island to-morrow.

Searle, Australian sculler, who recently defeated O'Connor in England for the championship of the world, has declined to row Jacob Guadaur in American waters for $2,500 a side.

AT CREEDMOOR.

Owing to a thick rain and heavy wind yesterday there were no long-range matches on the programme of the National Rifle Association at Creedmoor. Captain John Macauley won the President's match for the military championship of the United States.

Concerning Cadets.

The following have received appointments as cadets at the Military Academy: O. P. Townshend, Shawneetown, Nineteenth District, Illinois; Seaton N. Jones, Columbia, First District, North-Carolina, with Wilbur R. Cross, of Sunbury, as alternate; George M. Dewey, Jr., Owasso, Eighth Michigan, and Lorain T. Richardson, Janesville, First Wisconsin.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

MERIT WINS.

We desire so say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. VanDeusen Bros., Rondout, and F. J. R. Clarke, Kingston, druggists.

FORCED TO LEAVE HOME.

Over 60 people were forced to leave their homes yesterday to call for a free trial package of Lane's Family Medicine. If your blood is bad, your liver and kidneys out of order, if you are constipated, and have headache and an unsightly complexion, don't fail to call on any druggist to day for a free sample of this grand remedy. The ladies praise it. Every one likes it. Large size package 50 cents.

JUDGE SIMPSON

Of the Superior Court writes: From mental exhaustion my nervous system became shattered, and I was utterly unable to sleep nights. Sulphur Bitters cured me, and my sleep is now sound, sweet and refreshing.

Unless the breath is like a spicy gale,
Unless the teeth gleam like the driven snow,
There is no dazzling smile or tender tale,
Grateful to woman's eye or ear, we know.
The tale would lose its charms—the smile be gaunt.
Till brought within the spell of Sozodont.

As its name proves—it is soothing, pain-allaying and the best on earth—the Hop Plaster.

Ministers, Lawyers, Teachers and others whose occupation gives but little exercise, should use Carter's Little Liver Pills for torpid liver and biliousness. One is a dose. Try them.

SKIN CANCER.

Several years ago I was called to see a colored woman who had a malignant form of cancer on her foot. The cancer grew worse under the prescribed treatment, and the toes and one side of the foot were at length eaten entirely away. The patient could not have survived much longer, but I commenced the use of Swift's Specific, and it cured her sound and well. That was three years ago, and there has been no return of the disease. I regard Swift's Specific a most excellent medicine for blood diseases, as its tendency is to drive out the poison. WM. E. STAGG, M. D. Matherville, Miss.

CANCER OF THE TONGUE.

For three or four years I had an eating sore on my tongue that made a considerable hole in it. I became alarmed at its progress, and went to Atlanta for treatment. The result was that I commenced the use of Swift's Specific, and the sore was soon gone, without a trace of it left. A. LEWIS.

The Mango Weevil—Judges Have a Hard Time of It in Russia—Military Preparations in Morocco—Crete is Now Quiet—The Loss by Fire at Antwerp, Etc.

A correspondent writes: "The extraordinary pearl fever which has broken out in Wisconsin, in consequence of the discovery of pearls in the rivers of that State, reminds one who chances to know of it of the fact that there was formerly a man in Boston who supported himself by finding pearls in that neighborhood. He was a briefless barrister, his name being, I believe, Lovell. He was fond of angling, albeit I have never been informed whether there is any connection between this fact and smallness of his business connection. On one occasion, when he was fishing in a stream not very far from town, he opened a fresh-water clam for bait and therein discovered a pearl which he afterward sold to a Boston jeweller for $30, a sum which was in those days of greater magnitude than at present. This was so much more money than he had made at the law for a very considerable time that he was encouraged to continue to hunt for pearls in a literal rather than in a figurative sense, and to look rather to clams than to law for a living. In the end he came to devoting his entire time to pearl hunting, and so successful was he that he managed not only to make a living but to lay up enough with which to buy a farm on Cape Cod, whither he retired to pass the latter portion of his days. He became something of a hermit, and was known on the Cape as 'Lawyer Lovell.' His trade has never, so far as I am aware, been taken up there, and as the streams are, for the most part, still open, there is an opportunity for some mortal who likes an out-of-door life, is possessed of patience, and is not set upon accumulating too large a fortune."

The Supreme Lodge, Knights and Ladies of Honor, in session at Cleveland, Ohio, have elected the following officers: Supreme Protector, John T. Milburn, of Louisville, Ky.; Vice Supreme Protector, L. B. Lockard, of Bradford, Penn.; Supreme Secretary, C. W. Harvey, of Indianapolis, Ind.; Supreme Treasurer, E. J. McBridge, of Indianapolis, Ind.; Supreme Chaplain, Mrs. Elvira Anderson, of St. Louis, Mo.; Supreme Guide, S. B. Breed, of Lynn, Mass.; Supreme Guardian, Mrs Ella M. Tame, of Akron, Ohio; Supreme Sentinel, T. J. Wood, Starkville, Miss.; Supreme Medical Examiner, L. D. Wetherell, of Elmira, N. Y.; Board of Trustees, J. F. Drish, of Mattoon, Ill.; G. W. Cueck, of Louisville, Ky., and J. S. Anderson, of St. Louis.

"The military preparations which the Emperor of Morocco is making are exciting much attention in Spain," says the London St. James Gazette. "Considerable jealousy is shown because he employs French, Italian and German officers to drill his levies and to superintend his arsenals in preference to Spaniards. His visit to Tetuan and the northern provinces near the Mediterranean coast at the head of a well equipped force causes some anxiety, because the Spanish stations on the coasts are weakly garrisoned and badly provided with guns and fortifications. The Madrid papers urge the necessity of a more active policy in Morocco to prevent Spain from being ousted by other powers."

Mexico is exercised over the establishment of a mint in China. The Mexican silver dollar has for centuries been the standard coin of China and Asiatic commerce. France struck a blow at it by coining a silver dollar for its Tonquin possessions, and now China has established at Canton a mint having ninety coining presses, the largest mint in the world. This will strike a hard blow at Mexico's greatest industry, that of silver coining. It will open a new market for the silver bullion of the United States, and in that respect will be a gain for this country.

A new scheme has been concocted to catch the unwary granger. It is related that a clerical looking person, with a timid-looking young man and woman, recently drove up to a farm house and stated that the couple had taken a whimsical notion to be married among the handsome surroundings of the farmer's home and they would pay him liberally for the privilege. The farmer at once gave his consent and in addition served the trio with a fine dinner, for which he received $10, giving the parties a receipt. The receipt turned up in the hands of an innocent party as a promissory note for $400.

A dispatch from Shoshone, Idaho, says the agents looking up fraudulent land and water right entries are making important discoveries. The upper Blackfoot has been found to have natural meadows, covered by desert entries. On one tract of 11,000 acres claimed by prominent Utah Mormons, were found 10 mowing machines cutting thousands of tons of hay. Prosecutions are promised to place those lands back in the public domain, while examples will likely be made of some offenders charged with perjury.

The Chief of the Bureau of Statistics of the United States reports that the total number of immigrants arrived at the ports of the United States from the principal foreign countries, except from the Dominion of Canada and Mexico, during the month ended July 3, 1889, and the seven ended the same, as compared with the same period of the preceding years, as follows: For July, 1889, 32,845; 1888, 40,917; for the seven months, 1889, 269,146; 1888, 357,125.

Captain Van Eude, of the Dutch army has presented to the Bibliotheque Royale at Brussels his collection of about 500 coins of Indo-China. The series begins with some pieces of archaic type from Java, apparently before the influence of Buddhism, and includes examples of Mohammedan mints in Sumatra and the Malay Peninsula, and also the currency of the Dutch and English East India Companies.

J. Wray, Curator of the Museum of Perak, in the Malay Peninsula, communicates to Perak Government Gazette a note on the mango weevil, a pest which has lately excited some alarm in various parts of the East. Mr. Wray describes it as a small beetle infesting the mangoes in Perak, particularly the introduced varieties. It has been examined and found to be identical with the mango weevil of India.

"It is safe to say," declares the Asbury Park Daily Journal, "that there are to day 100 places in Asbury Park where liquor is unlawfully sold. Prohibition is in fact and in truth a dead letter here, but it is no fault of the law. By their apathy the people of this place have just as surely killed prohibition as as if they had gone to the polls and voted against it, for apathy is as bad as opposition."

One of the wonderful women of the Pine Tree State is Miss Dow, the invalid daughter of the veteran Neal Dow. For years she has been confined to her chair. During this time she has studied almost constantly and mastered the French, German, Spanish, Russian, and Greek languages. She recently repeated a long passage from her Greek Testament, verbatim a month after she had read it.

A question upon which opinion was much divided at the International Botanic Congress in Paris was whether the grains of corn found in the Egyptian sarcophagi had any seminal virtue left. It appears that most of the so-called mummy corn remarkable for streaks of tar on the surface, and sold to travellers in Egypt at the rate of about $1 per 25 grains, is a gross imposture.

Denmark for 25 years past has spent $50,000 yearly for the maintenance of dairy schools. As a result of the training the butter makers have received at this school the butter of the country has been so much improved in quality that within 20 years Denmark's exports of butter have increased from $2,100,000 to $13,000,000 per annum.

The Coroner's verdict on the death of the three persons killed by the bursting of the Spring Lake reservoir dam at Cranston, R. I., on August 28, declares that the dam was of defective construction, and, without directly placing the blame states that it was "erected, owned and controlled by the Pawtuxet Valley Water Company."

George Kennan, writing in the Century Magazine, tells of a valley in Siberia where the heat was as intense as that of an African desert, where he had to protect himself from the fierce sunshine by four thicknesses of blanket, yet had the premonitory symptoms of sunstroke in the strange feeling of faintness, nausea and suffocation.

It is queer, though it is a fact, that Ohio has 40,373 white voters unable to write; Pennsylvania, 65,885; New-York, 76,746. The men who can't read their ballots hold the balance of political power in these important states. The states reputed the most intelligent often vote as stupidly as the less wise.

There is a woman in Milwaukee, Wis., who is the mother of nine children. Not one of them was named until it was 12 years old. The were simply called by their nicknames and their numbers, "One," "Two," etc. When they were 12 years old each one choose his own name and was baptized.

In an interview about the Brooklyn-St. Louis trouble, President Wykoff is reported as saying, in regard to expelling the latter team: "I consider that part of the constitution virtually a dead letter. It would be impossible to enforce it without carrying the matter to the courts, and there the case would not hold, as it would be compelling a man to give something for nothing. In regard to the whole matter I am very sorry that the difficulty has arisen, and I am anxious not to hold a meeting until both parties in the controversy have had time to cool down somewhat. The only action I have taken so far in the matter is to notify the respective clubs to stop paying the St. Louis team any guarantee or percentage, and in doing this I am simply following out Article 78 of the constitution."

The Chicago club won the pennant in 1876, Boston in 1877 and 1878, Providence in 1879, Chicago in 1880, 1881 and 1882, Boston in 1883, Providence in 1884, Chicago in 1885 and 1886, Detroit in 1887, and New-York in 1888. Indianapolis has been in the League four seasons, including the present one. The team was in last place in 1887, and in seventh place in 1888.

Result of yesterday's ball games: National League—At Boston — Boston 3, Cleveland 2, first game. Boston 5, Cleveland 0, second game. American Association—At Columbus—Columbus 12, Cincinnati 1.

All the clubs in the American Association have been notified not to pay St. Louis any part of gate receipts until Van der Ahe has paid that $3,000 fine to Brooklyn.

James McAleer, the clever centre fielder of the Clevelands, is at his home in Youngstown, Ohio, suffering from torn ligaments in his left ankle.

Alexander Jones, formerly of the Homestead, Pa., club, has signed with the Columbus team. He is left-handed and said to be a "phenomenon."

According to a statement made by President Brush, the Indianapolis Club will surely be represented in the League next year.

On Monday the Cuban Giants will play at Hudson. The club's record to date is won, 104; lost, 28; tie, 3. Total 136.

The St. Louis-Brooklyn embroglio is creating much disaffected talk in base ball circles.

Wagerhurst, for a short time with the New-Yorks, will study law the coming winter.

In all but two out of 22 consecutive games has Bennett failed to reach first base on balls.

There are two lawyers numbered among the Giants—Ward and O'Rourke.

Marr, of the Columbus team, leads the Association in three-base hits.

Syracuse was the first International club to play 100 championship games.

John Clarkson pitched two magnificent games of ball yesterday.

Recently McKean, of the Clevelands, muffed his first ball of the season.

HORSE NOTES.

The winners at Sheepshead Bay yesterday were as follows: Three-quarters of a mile for two year olds, for a sweepstakes of $150 each for starters with $5,000 added, G. Heart's Tournament won in 1:17. The Racing stakes, distance one mile, entrance fee $50, with $1,250 added, McClelland & Roche's Badge won in 1:48. D. A. Honig's Cartoon won the seven eighths of a mile scamper in 1:30. Oarman Gregory and Bellwood were the other winners.

At the Queen City Full Mile Driving Club's meeting at Cincinnati yesterday Pointer was the winner in the 2:35 class. Best time 2:26. In the 2:24 class Lottie W. won. Best time 2:21. In the 2:27 class Realty won in three straight heats. Best time 2:23¼. Guy made an effort to beat the time of Maud S.—2:08¾—for a purse of $5,000. It made the mile in 2:12, several seconds behind.

The inaugural meeting of the Exposition Driving Park Association opened in Kansas City yesterday. In the 2:48 class for a purse of $1,000, Dick Smith won in three straight heats. Best time 2:38½. In the 2:24 pacing race, purse $700, Wonder won, John B. second. Best time 2:32.

At the race course in Sacramento, Cal., yesterday the three-year-old filly Sunlo won the Occidental stakes and made a trotting record of 2:16½ for a mile.

Hook & Clay have sold the three-year-old gray filly Abbie V., by Aberdeen, dam Maid of Windsor, to Charles Miller, of Cincinnati, for $7,000.

The Island Park trots have been postponed on account of the unfavorable weather.

GENERAL WHEELING NOTES.

Nearly all the wheelmen who are to attend the Seventh Annual Meet of the New-York State Division of the League of American Wheelmen, which is to take place to-morrow, have arrived at New-York City. Among the clubs represented from out-of town are the Albany, Rochester, Buffalo, Syracuse and Pathfinder, of Cooperstown. A number of wheelmen from Philadelphia and Bridgeport, Conn., are expected to-night. The Riverside Wheelmen have open house to-day at their club-house, 138 West One Hundred and Fourth-street, where the visiting wheelmen are being entertained.

A. Irving Fuller, of Rome, N. Y., has entered the ranks of the professionals under the training of W. C. Chapin, Captain of the Syracuse Cycling Club.

On election day the 10-mile handicap road race of the Elizabeth, N. J., wheelmen will take place. It is a championship event.

W. C. Hydecker, of the New-York Bicycle Club, is in training for his race with F. Stayer on September 21.

There is some talk of holding a great two days' tournament in Boston next month.

The road race of the Capital City Wheelmen has been postponed.

ATHLETES.

John F. Owen, Jr., the Detroit Athletic Club's great sprinter, who recently won a 100-yard race in 9 4-5 seconds, will compete in the championship meeting at Travers Island to-morrow.

Searle, Australian sculler, who recently defeated O'Connor in England for the championship of the world, has declined to row Jacob Guadaur in American waters for $2,500 a side.

AT CREEDMOOR.

Owing to a thick rain and heavy wind yesterday there were no long-range matches on the programme of the National Rifle Association at Creedmoor. Captain John Macauley won the President's match for the military championship of the United States.

Concerning Cadets.

The following have received appointments as cadets at the Military Academy: O. P. Townshend, Shawneetown, Nineteenth District, Illinois; Seaton N. Jones, Columbia, First District, North-Carolina, with Wilbur R. Cross, of Sunbury, as alternate; George M. Dewey, Jr., Owasso, Eighth Michigan, and Lorain T. Richardson, Janesville, First Wisconsin.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

MERIT WINS.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. VanDeusen Bros., Rondout, and F. J. R. Clarke, Kingston, druggists.

FORCED TO LEAVE HOME.

Over 60 people were forced to leave their homes yesterday to call for a free trial package of Lane's Family Medicine. If your blood is bad, your liver and kidneys out of order, if you are constipated, and have headache and an unsightly complexion, don't fail to call on any druggist to day for a free sample of this grand remedy. The ladies praise it. Every one likes it. Large size package 50 cents.

JUDGE SIMPSON

Of the Superior Court writes: From mental exhaustion my nervous system became shattered, and I was utterly unable to sleep nights. Sulphur Bitters cured me, and my sleep is now sound, sweet and refreshing.

Unless the breath is like a spicy gale,
Unless the teeth gleam like the driven snow,
There is no dazzling smile or tender tale,
Grateful to woman's eye or ear, we know.
The tale would lose its charms—the smile be gaunt,
Till brought within the spell of Sozodont.

As its name proves—it is soothing, pain-allaying and the best on earth—the Hop Plaster.

Ministers, Lawyers, Teachers and others whose occupation gives but little exercise, should use Carter's Little Liver Pills for torpid liver and biliousness. One is a dose. Try them.

PILES! PILES! ITCHING PILES.

Symptoms—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. Swayne's Ointment stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors. At druggists, or by mail, for 50 cent. Dr. Swayne & Son, Philadelphia.

AN IMPORTANT ELEMENT

Of the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is the fact that every purchaser receives a fair equivalent for his money. The familiar headline "100 Doses One Dollar," stolen by imitators, is original with and true only of Hood's Sarsaparilla. This can easily be proven by any one who desires to test the matter. For real economy, buy only Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sold by all druggists.

SKIN CANCER.

Several years ago I was called to see a colored woman who had a malignant form of cancer on her foot. The cancer grew worse under the prescribed treatment, and the toes and one side of the foot were at length eaten entirely away. The patient could not have survived much longer, but I commenced the use of Swift's Specific, and it cured her sound and well. That was three years ago, and there has been no return of the disease. I regard Swift's Specific a most excellent medicine for blood diseases, as its tendency is to drive out the poison. WM. E. STAGG, M. D. Matherville, Miss.

The Mango Weevil—Judges Have a Hard Time of It in Russia—Military Preparations in Morocco—Crete is Now Quiet—The Loss by Fire at Antwerp, Etc.

A correspondent writes: "The extraordinary pearl fever which has broken out in Wisconsin, in consequence of the discovery of pearls in the rivers of that State, reminds one who chances to know of it of the fact that there was formerly a man in Boston who supported himself by finding pearls in that neighborhood. He was a briefless barrister, his name being, I believe, Lovell. He was fond of angling, albeit I have never been informed whether there is any connection between this fact and smallness of his business connection. On one occasion, when he was fishing in a stream not very far from town, he opened a fresh-water clam for bait and therein discovered a pearl which he afterward sold to a Boston jeweller for $30, a sum which was in those days of greater magnitude than at present. This was so much more money than he had made at the law for a very considerable time that he was encouraged to continue to hunt for pearls in a literal rather than in a figurative sense, and to look rather to clams than to law for a living. In the end he came to devoting his entire time to pearl hunting, and so successful was he that he managed not only to make a living but to lay up enough with which to buy a farm on Cape Cod, whither he retired to pass the latter portion of his days. He became something of a hermit, and was known on the Cape as 'Lawyer Lovell.' His trade has never, so far as I am aware, been taken up there, and as the streams are, for the most part, still open, there is an opportunity for some mortal who likes an out-of-door life, is possessed of patience, and is not set upon accumulating too large a fortune."

The Supreme Lodge, Knights and Ladies of Honor, in session at Cleveland, Ohio, have elected the following officers: Supreme Protector, John T. Milburn, of Louisville, Ky.; Vice Supreme Protector, L. B. Lockard, of Bradford, Penn.; Supreme Secretary, C. W. Harvey, of Indianapolis, Ind.; Supreme Treasurer, E. J. McBridge, of Indianapolis, Ind.; Supreme Chaplain, Mrs. Elvira Anderson, of St. Louis, Mo.; Supreme Guide, S. B. Breed, of Lynn, Mass.; Supreme Guardian, Mrs Ella M. Tame, of Akron, Ohio; Supreme Sentinel, T. J. Wood, Starkville, Miss; Supreme Medical Examiner, L. D. Wetherell, of Elmira, N. Y.; Board of Trustees, J. F. Drish, of Mattoon, Ill.; G. W. Cheek, of Louisville, Ky., and J. S. Anderson, of St. Louis.

"The military preparations which the Emperor of Morocco is making are exciting much attention in Spain," says the London St. James Gazette. "Considerable jealousy is shown because he employs French, Italian and German officers to drill his levies and to superintend his arsenals in preference to Spaniards. His visit to Tetuan and the northern provinces near the Mediterranean coast at the head of a well equipped force causes some anxiety, because the Spanish stations on the coasts are weakly garrisoned and badly provided with guns and fortifications. The Madrid papers urge the necessity of a more active policy in Morocco to prevent Spain from being ousted by other powers."

Mexico is exercised over the establishment of a mint in China. The Mexican silver dollar has for centuries been the standard coin of China and Asiatic commerce. France struck a blow at it by coining a silver dollar for its Tonquin possessions, and now China has established at Canton a mint having ninety coining presses, the largest mint in the world. This will strike a hard blow at Mexico's greatest industry, that of silver coining. It will open a new market for the silver bullion of the United States, and in that respect will be a gain for this country.

A new scheme has been concocted to catch the unwary granger. It is related that a clerical looking person, with a timid-looking young man and woman, recently drove up to a farm house and stated that the couple had taken a whimsical notion to be married among the handsome surroundings of the farmer's home and they would pay him liberally for the privilege. The farmer at once gave his consent and in addition served the trio with a fine dinner, for which he received $40, giving the parties a receipt. The receipt turned up in the hands of an innocent party as a promissory note for $400.

A dispatch from Shoshone, Idaho, says the agents looking up fraudulent land and water right entries are making important discoveries. The upper Blackfoot has been found to have natural meadows, covered by desert entries. On one tract of 11,000 acres claimed by prominent Utah Mormons, were found 10 mowing machines cutting thousands of tons of hay. Prosecutions are promised to place those lands back in the public domain, while examples will likely be made of some offenders charged with perjury.

The Chief of the Bureau of Statistics of the United States reports that the total number of immigrants arrived at the ports of the United States from the principal foreign countries, except from the Dominion of Canada and Mexico, during the month ended July 3, 1889, and the seven ended the same, as compared with the same period of the preceding years, as follows: For July, 1889, 32,845; 1888, 40,917; for the seven months, 1889, 269,146; 1888, 357,125.

Captain Van Eude, of the Dutch army has presented to the Bibliotheque Royale at Brussels his collection of about 500 coins of Indo-China. The series begins with some pieces of archaic type from Java, apparently before the influence of Buddhism, and includes examples of Mohammedan mints in Sumatra and the Malay Peninsula, and also the currency of the Dutch and English East India Companies.

J. Wray, Curator of the Museum of Perak, in the Malay Peninsula, communicates to Perak Government Gazette a note on the mango weevil, a pest which has lately excited some alarm in various parts of the East. Mr. Wray describes it as a small beetle infesting the mangoes in Perak, particularly the introduced varieties. It has been examined and found to be identical with the mango weevil of India.

"It is safe to say," declares the Asbury Park Daily Journal, "that there are to day 100 places in Asbury Park where liquor is unlawfully sold. Prohibition is in fact and in truth a dead letter here, but it is no fault of the law. By their apathy the people of this place have just as surely killed prohibition as as if they had gone to the polls and voted against it, for apathy is as bad as opposition."

One of the wonderful women of the Pine Tree State is Miss Dow, the invalid daughter of the veteran Neal Dow. For years she has been confined to her chair. During this time she has studied almost constantly and mastered the French, German, Spanish, Russian, and Greek languages. She recently repeated a long passage from her Greek Testament, verbatim a month after she had read it.

A question upon which opinion was much divided at the International Botanic Congress in Paris was whether the grains of corn found in the Egyptian sarcophagi had any seminal virtue left. It appears that most of the so-called mummy corn remarkable for streaks of tar on the surface, and sold to travellers in Egypt at the rate of about $1 per 25 grains, is a gross imposture.

Denmark for 25 years past has spent $50,000 yearly for the maintenance of dairy schools. As a result of the training the butter makers have received at this school the butter of the country has been so much improved in quality that within 20 years Denmark's exports of butter have increased from $2,100,000 to $13,000,000 per annum.

The Coroner's verdict on the death of the three persons killed by the bursting of the Spring Lake reservoir dam at Cranston, R. I., on August 28, declares that the dam was of defective construction, and, without directly placing the blame states that it was "erected, owned and controlled by the Pawtuxet Valley Water Company."

George Kennan, writing in the Century Magazine, tells of a valley in Siberia where the heat was as intense as that of an African desert, where he had to protect himself from the fierce sunshine by four thicknesses of blanket, yet had the premonitory symptoms of sunstroke in the strange feeling of faintness, nausea and suffocation.

It is queer, though it is a fact, that Ohio has 40,373 white voters unable to write; Pennsylvania, 65,885; New-York, 76,746. The men who can't read their ballots hold the balance of political power in these important states. The states reputed the most intelligent often vote as stupidly as the less wise.

There is a woman in Milwaukee, Wis., who is the mother of nine children. Not one of them was named until it was 12 years old. The were simply called by their nicknames and their numbers, "One," "Two," etc. When they were 12 years old each one choose his own name and was baptized.

The Prince of Wales has settled "an important question of dress." He wears three studs with evening costume. He claims that three studs make a shirt set better than two.

Although Crete is becoming quiet, the Porte will raise the number of troops stationed there from 30,000 to 40,000, and several war-ships will guard the island.

SOME INTERESTING EVENTS THAT HAVE TAKEN PLACE WRITTEN UP.

The Base Ball Record—Winner of Trotting And Running Races—Searle Declines to Row Guadaur—Wheelmen, Sprinters—Notes-By-the-Wayside, Etc.

Sporting matters of general interest in various parts of the United States follow:

BASE BALL.

The following is the record of the League and Association clubs up to date:

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

| Clubs. | Won. | Lost. | P. Ct. | Clubs. | Won. | Lost. | P. Ct. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Boston | 70 | 38 | .648 | Cleveland | 53 | 60 | .469 |
| New-York | 68 | 40 | .630 | Indianapolis | 50 | 65 | .435 |
| Philadelphia | 58 | 51 | .532 | Pittsburg | 49 | 66 | .426 |
| Chicago | 58 | 56 | .509 | Washington | 38 | 68 | .358 |

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

| Clubs. | Won. | Lost. | P. Ct. | Clubs. | Won. | Lost. | P. Ct. |
|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|---|
| Brooklyn | 77 | 37 | .675 | Cincinnati | [illegible]1 | 56 | .521 |
| St. Louis | 72 | 41 | .637 | Kansas City | 48 | 67 | .417 |
| Baltimore | 64 | 47 | .577 | Columbus | 48 | 70 | .412 |
| Athletic | 62 | 48 | .564 | Louisville | 24 | 91 | .209 |

In an interview about the Brooklyn-St. Louis trouble, President Wykoff is reported as saying, in regard to expelling the latter team: "I consider that part of the constitution virtually a dead letter. It would be impossible to enforce it without carrying the matter to the courts, and there the case would not hold, as it would be compelling a man to give something for nothing. In regard to the whole matter I am very sorry that the difficulty has arisen, and I am anxious not to hold a meeting until both parties in the controversy have had time to cool down somewhat. The only action I have taken so far in the matter is to notify the respective clubs to stop paying the St. Louis team any guarantee or percentage, and in doing this I am simply following out Article 78 of the constitution."

The Chicago club won the pennant in 1876, Boston in 1877 and 1878, Providence in 1879, Chicago in 1880, 1881 and 1882, Boston in 1883, Providence in 1884, Chicago in 1885 and 1886, Detroit in 1887, and New-York in 1888. Indianapolis has been in the League four seasons, including the present one. The team was in last place in 1887, and in seventh place in 1888.

Result of yesterday's ball games: National League—At Boston—Boston 3, Cleveland 2, first game. Boston 5, Cleveland 0, second game. American Association—At Columbus—Columbus 12, Cincinnati 1.

All the clubs in the American Association have been notified not to pay St. Louis any part of gate receipts until Van der Ahe has paid that $3,000 fine to Brooklyn.

James McAleer, the clever centre fielder of the Clevelands, is at his home in Youngstown, Ohio, suffering from torn ligaments in his left ankle.

Alexander Jones, formerly of the Homestead, Pa., club, has signed with the Columbus team. He is left-handed and said to be a "phenomenon."

According to a statement made by President Brush, the Indianapolis Club will surely be represented in the League next year.

On Monday the Cuban Giants will play at Hudson. The club's record to date is won, 104; lost, 28; tie, 3. Total 136.

The St. Louis-Brooklyn embroglio is creating much disaffected talk in base ball circles.

Wagerhurst, for a short time with the New-Yorks, will study law the coming winter.

In all but two out of 22 consecutive games has Bennett failed to reach first base on balls.

There are two lawyers numbered among the Giants—Ward and O'Rourke.

Marr, of the Columbus team, leads the Association in three-base hits.

Syracuse was the first International club to play 100 championship games.

John Clarkson pitched two magnificent games of ball yesterday.

Recently McKean, of the Clevelands, muffed his first ball of the season.

HORSE NOTES.

Oarman Gregory and Bellwood were the other winners.

At the Queen City Full Mile Driving Club's meeting at Cincinnati yesterday Pointer was the winner in the 2:35 class. Best time 2:26. In the 2:24 class Lottie W. won. Best time 2:21. In the 2:27 class Realty won in three straight heats. Best time 2:23½. Guy made an effort to beat the time of Maud S.—2:08¾—for a purse of $5,000. It made the mile in 2:12, several seconds behind.

The inaugural meeting of the Exposition Driving Park Association opened in Kansas City yesterday. In the 2:48 class for a purse of $1,000, Dick Smith won in three straight heats. Best time 2:38½. In the 2:24 pacing race, purse $700, Wonder won, John B. second. Best time 2:32.

At the race course in Sacramento, Cal., yesterday the three-year-old filly Sunlo won the Occidental stakes and made a trotting record of 2:16½ for a mile.

Hook & Clay have sold the three-year-old gray filly Abbie V., by Aberdeen, dam Maid of Windsor, to Charles Miller, of Cincinnati, for $7,000.

The Island Park trots have been postponed on account of the unfavorable weather.

GENERAL WHEELING NOTES.

Nearly all the wheelmen who are to attend the Seventh Annual Meet of the New-York State Division of the League of American Wheelmen, which is to take place to-morrow, have arrived at New-York City. Among the clubs represented from out-of town are the Albany, Rochester, Buffalo, Syracuse and Pathfinder, of Cooperstown. A number of wheelmen from Philadelphia and Bridgeport, Conn., are expected to-night. The Riverside Wheelmen have open house to-day at their club-house, 138 West One Hundred and Fourth-street, where the visiting wheelmen are being entertained.

A. Irving Fuller, of Rome, N. Y., has entered the ranks of the professionals under the training of W. C. Chapin, Captain of the Syracuse Cycling Club.

On election day the 10-mile handicap road race of the Elizabeth, N. J., wheelmen will take place. It is a championship event.

W. C. Hydecker, of the New-York Bicycle Club, is in training for his race with F. Stayer on September 21.

There is some talk of holding a great two days' tournament in Boston next month.

The road race of the Capital City Wheelmen has been postponed.

ATHLETES.

John F. Owen, Jr., the Detroit Athletic Club's great sprinter, who recently won a 100-yard race in 9 4-5 seconds, will compete in the championship meeting at Travers Island to-morrow.

Searle, Australian sculler, who recently defeated O'Connor in England for the championship of the world, has declined to row Jacob Guadaur in American waters for $2,500 a side.

AT CREEDMOOR.

Owing to a thick rain and heavy wind yesterday there were no long-range matches on the programme of the National Rifle Association at Creedmoor. Captain John Macauley won the President's match for the military championship of the United States.

Concerning Cadets.

The following have received appointments as cadets at the Military Academy: O. P. Townshend, Shawneetown, Nineteenth District, Illinois; Seaton N. Jones, Columbia, First District, North-Carolina, with Wilbur R. Cross, of Sunbury, as alternate; George M. Dewey, Jr., Owasso, Eighth Michigan, and Lorain T. Richardson, Janesville, First Wisconsin.

We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. VanDeusen Bros., Rondout, and F. J. R. Clarke, Kingston, druggists.

There is no dazzling smile or tender tale,
Grateful to woman's eye or ear, we know.
The tale would lose its charms—the smile be gaunt,
Till brought within the spell of Sozodont.

As its name proves—it is soothing, pain-allaying and the best on earth—the Hop Plaster.

TENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION ENDED TO-DAY AT MILTON.

Encouraging Reports From Local Unions—A Paper on "Unfermented Wine"—"Heredity and Hygiene"—Tobacco-Dealers Who Sell Cigarettes to Boys—Resolutions, Etc.

The Ulster County Women's Christian Temperance Union Convention was continued at Milton yesterday. The morning session was opened with devotional service, led by Miss Elizabeth Lockwood, of Marlborough.

The several representatives reported as follows: Miss. E. C. Hale, of Rondout, reported that the Rondout Union had held regular meetings, which were well attended. Mrs. E. Underhill Burgess, of Highland; Mrs. J. A. Buckmaster, of Marlborough; Mrs. S. M. Matthews, of Shokan; Mrs. Abram Deyo, of New-Paltz, and Mrs. Earle Stone, of Milton, reported from the Unions in their localities.

Mrs. J. A. Buckmaster read a report written by Mrs. S. M. Oliver, of Rosendale, on "Unfermented Wine." The report showed that nearly all the churches in Ulster County were using unfermented wine at communion services. In her report she gave the ideas of certain clergymen and doctors on the use of unfermented wine.

Mrs. S. M. Wakelee, of Kingston, read a report on the subject of "Hereditary and Hygiene."

Mrs. Samuel Judkins, of Ohioville, reported on "Social Purity."

Members of several departments, including "Evangelistic Work," "Influencing Physicians Not to Prescribe Alcoholics, and Narcotics" reported.

Mrs. D. B. Stow, of Rondout, stated that she had heard that many of the delegates had not learned that there was a law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to boys. She urged upon the delegates the necessity of informing themselves on this point, and to see to it that the law should be enforced.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Ulster County Women's Christian Temperance Union in Convention assembled again acknowledge the Great Helper and again thank Him for sustaining care and for continued guidance. Assured that He is on our side, we are encouraged to work on with renewed zeal in the lines we have undertaken and inspired to press on towards the work of our high calling.

Resolved, That the members of this convention are exceedingly grateful to their President for consenting to serve for us for another year and notwithstanding the demands made upon her to give us the inspiration of her leadership for another year.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Union be extended to the trustees and all others of the Milton M. E. Church for their courtesy and to the people of the village of Milton for their outspoken and generous hospitality.

Resolved, That the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Ulster County reaffirm its loyalty to the methods and aims of our State organization.

A resolution of regret on the death of Mrs. Lucy Webb Hayes was passed.

After hearing a report from Warwarsing Union the forenoon session was closed by a "noon-tide" prayer, offered by the Rev. W. G. Westervelt.

The closing session was opened by a praise service, under the leadership of Mrs. Millspaugh, of Wallkill.

The report of the Credential Committee showed an attendance of 62 delegates.

The following Superintendents were appointed:

| | |
|---|---|
| "Scientific Instruction" | Mrs. S. Lefever |
| "Sunday School Work" | Mrs. C. H. Ganse |

A new department was organized—that of Sunday Observation, with Mrs. C. H. Brundage, of Wawarsing, as Superintendent.

Miss Martha H. Hallock, of Milton, read a comprehensive paper on the subject of "Peace and Arbitration."

The Chair called upon Mrs. D. C. Nevin, of Highland, to take charge of a memorial service. Two members of the Kingston Union have died during the year—Miss Laura Merritt and Miss Flora Kennedy.

Closing words were spoken by Mrs. E. Underhill Burgess, who urged the women of the Union to go hand-in-hand to battle against the common enemy.

The next meeting of the Convention will be held in this City. Prominent speakers will be present.

A MEETING HERE.

The members of the Downtown Women's Christian Temperance Union held a meeting in their rooms this afternoon.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK.

The Rev. A. H. Huizenga, of New-Paltz, James F. Osterhoudt, of the town of Ulster, and William Smith, of this City, have returned from a tour of the towns of Hardenburgh and Denning, in the interest of Sunday School work. They left the Ulster & Delaware Railroad near Pine Hill, and proceeded on foot to Dry Brook, where they addressed a large gathering in a grove. The missionaries went from Dry Brook over the mountains into the Millbrook region, by way of "Cat Ladder." At Turnwood another grove meeting was held. There were 400 people present, who came in wagons drawn by horses and oxen, on horseback and on foot. The members of four Sunday Schools marched with banners and flags to the music of two drum corps. During the afternoon a visit was made to the Quaker Clearing, thence to the West Branch of the Neversink, crossing Wild Cat Mountain to DeWittville, a walk of 13 miles. The grove meeting at that place was a large one. Mr. Huizengar left Messrs. Smith and Osterhoudt at Dewittville. From Dewittville Messrs. Smith and Osterhoudt walked to Red Kill, and thence to Sundown, where a large Sunday School meeting was held in the M. E. Church. Then they went to Bull Run. On their return trip they visited the Peekamoose Sunday School, at the headwaters of the Rondout Creek. This school was organized in June, 1882, by Secretary Smith and others. When it was instituted there was no building in which to hold sessions. The 18 children and teachers during the summer gathered in a grove on the mountain side. The school was mentioned in Mr. Smith's reports, and soon donations of books and papers were made. After a time a pavillion was built, in which to shelter the children from rain. Meetings were held in it for six years. Recently the members of a city club purchased 1,700 acres of land along the creek there and erected a club-house, and also a union chapel, which is now used by the school. Near by a Catholic lady has built a chapel, where she can worship according to her own faith. It is expected this chapel will be dedicated by Archbishop Corrigan some time this month. Messrs. Smith and Osterhoudt walked through The Gulf and from thence by way of Watson Hollow to Shokan.

IN THE PORTAL.

The annual meeting of the Archdeaconry of Orange will be held in St. George's Church, New-York City, on September 18. The following gentlemen have been elected to represent parishes: James J. Logan, W. Hewd and L. P. Church, St. Paul's, Newburgh; Aymar VanBuren, J. Abner Harper and D. P. Kelly, St. Thomas', New-Windsor; J. Pierrepont Morgan, Professor G. L. Andrews and Ezra Drew, Highland Falls; C. D. Bruyn, C. A. Fowler and Augustus Reynolds, St. John's, Kingston; C. McArdle, W. H. Wiggins and J. P. Pralm, Grace Church, Middletown; C. Butterfuss, Ellenville; Hon. D. B. St. John, H. Dudley and S. C. Mills, St. George's, Newburgh; R. D. A. Parott, Greenwood Lake; W. Harris and J. Chatfield, St. John's, Cornwall; George Weller, W. Weller and B. Parshall, St. Andrew's, Walden; C. W. Weston, H. Underwood and James Frances, Milton; D. Coe, J. A. Beall and A. T. Canfield, Highland; Frank H. Griffiths, C. V. A. Decker and Isaac C. Buswell, Church of the Holy Spirit, Rondout; W. D. Van Vliet, H. Payne and A. T. Mosher, St. James, Goshen. The clerical members are the Rectors of the above named parishes. The work mapped out for the Archdeaconry for the annual meeting is of an interesting and important character. Officers and standing committees are to be elected. There will be no election of Archdeacon, as the Rev. Mr. Thomas, of Highland, is doing effective work. His term will expire when his successor is appointed, and no one has yet been named or even suggested. Reports of the work in parishes and stations receiving pecuniary aid from the Archdeaconry will be read by the missionaries having charge of the same. New places for missionary effort will be presented, and the propriety of establishing missions in them will be considered. The intent and purpose of the Archdeaconry is to do work for the needy and destitute where existing religious bodies do not and cannot reach—not to supplant but to supplement. The stipends are voted at this meeting and other matters of importance transacted. The session will be opened with the administration of holy communion. The Rector of St. James Church, Goshen, will preach the sermon. Bishop Potter will be present and not only conduct the religious exercises, but preside over the session. A by no means insignificant feature of the annual meeting is the collation to be furnished by the ladies of St. George's Church who are noted for their hospitality.

The services at St. John's Church on Sunday will be as follows: Holy Communion, 7:30, morning service, 10:30 A. M.; Sunday School 2, evensong, 7:30 P. M.

A reception was given the Rev. Perry Jackson last evening. Many members of his church were present. Mr. Jackson was presented with a purse.

RECALLING THE STRONG MURDER.

One O'Brien, Serving a Sentence for Horse-Stealing, May Have Been the Assassin.

A dispatch from Denver, Colorado, to THE FREEMAN to-day stated: "The murderer of T. Morris Wain, of Haverford, Pa., and C. H. Strong, of Esopus, Ulster County, New-York, young hunters, who were killed by their guide or teamster in Carbon County, Wyoming, June 27, 1888, has been discovered in the person of one Thomas O'Brien, now serving 15 years in Canon City Penitentiary for stealing horses. Since the murder Jacob F. Wain, a brother of one of the murdered men, has made every endeavor to secure the arrest of the guilty party. Some months ago the Sheriff of Colorado Springs, advertised for the arrest of O'Brien for horse-stealing. One of the circulars with O'Brien's photograph fell into the hands of a ranchman near Rawlings, Wyo., who identified the portrait as that of the man who stopped at his house with Wain and Strong on the night of June 26. O'Brien was finally arrested and sentenced. Mr. Wain took the ranchman to the prison where he picked out the alleged murderer. He will try to have O'Brien taken to Wyoming and tried for murder."

THE RECORD OF CITY AMUSEMENTS.

"A Bunch of Keys" Last Night—"Chaos Flat"—"Keep it Dark," Etc.

"A Bunch of Keys" was presented at Liscomb's Opera House last evening by the Daniels and Riegels Company. It is a roaring farce. Fun was all the author aimed at, and he succeeded. As a whole the company is a good one, though Miss Raymond as "Teddy," the principal role, tried to be too pert by half, considering the amount of brains she has and the artistic ability she lacks. Charles Burke as "Snags," F. E Damm as "Jonas Grimes" and Florence Barry as "May Keyes" carried off the honors. The house was packed and the applause was generous. There were several encores. Should "A Bunch of Keys" be presented here again a full house is assured. Manager Liscomb is to be congratulated.

A musical comedy, "Chaos Flat," will be given at Kingston Opera House on Monday evening. The leaders in the company, the comediennes Rillie and Ada Deaves, are said to be bright and versatile. The music is unique and catchy, and novel effects in stage dressing will be introduced. The company carry three sets of special scenery, painted by Thomas Weston, of the Grand Opera House, New-York City. The scenery for the last act, entitled "Amber Palace," is said to be "gorgeous." Among the musical specialties and songs there will be much that is new and novel. There are 17 persons in the cast.

"Chaos Flat" a musical comedy, will be the attraction at the Kingston Opera House on Monday evening, September 16. ## THAT IS OF ESPECIAL INTEREST TO PEOPLE LIVING HERE.

Paragraphs Relating to Men and Matters That Have Happened or are Likely to Occur, Which Furnish "Easy" Reading to Those Interested in the City's Welfare.

Every once in a while a "child's story" is printed on this page. Some of the youngsters say quaint things, and occasionally "children of an older growth" will say to themselves: "Is it possible that a four-year-old did really say what THE FREEMAN states it did?" Apropos of this it may be pointed out that in the last volume of the "Educational Series" on "The Development of the Intellect" H. W. Brown has presented a conspectus of the observations of Professor Preyer on the mind of the child, which shows chronologically the gradual development of the senses, intellect and will of the growing child, and presents in a condensed form the result of a great number of careful observations. It is recorded that sensibility to light, touch, temperature, smell and taste are present on the first day of infant life. Hearing, therefore, is the only special sense which is not active at this time. The child hears by the third or fourth day. Taste and smell are senses at first most active, but they are not differentiated. General organic sensations of well being or discomfort are felt from the first, but pain and pleasure, as mental states, are not noted till at or near the second month. This first sign of speech in the shape of utterance of consonant sounds is heard in the latter part of the second month, these consonants being generally "m," "r," "g," or "t." All the movements of the eyes become co-ordinate by the fourth month, and by this time the child begins to have the "feeling of self," that is, he looks at his own hands and looks at himself in the mirror. The study of the child's mind during the first year shows conclusively that ideas develop and reasoning processes occur before there is any knowledge of words or language; though it may be assumed that the child thinks in symbols, visual or auditory, which are clumsy equivalents for words. By the end of the year the child begins to express itself by sounds; that is, speech begins. The development of this speech capacity is according to Preyer, in accordance with the development of the intellectual powers. By the end of the second year the child's power of speech is practically acquired. Yes, the stories printed here are generally true to Nature.

An "Observer" says: "Some City people have acquired a most unfortunate habit of sneering at and ridiculing the country and country people. It is not the active, successful class of people who do this. Such have too much sense, and besides, a large proportion were themselves country born and bred. Any one having true appreciation of the importance of the farming population as the basis of public prosperity cannot fail to treat it not merely with respect, but with deference. Every class has some peculiarities. Those of country people are such as to adapt them to the necessities of their life, and it is upon the workers in the country, rather than upon idlers anywhere, that the progress of mankind must always be based."

A considerable portion of the milk sold in this City is of poor quality. A correspondent of the Middletown Argus writes:

Many a housekeeper has been puzzled to know at times whether or not the milkman is honest. I would suggest that they at times set away a tumblerful of the milk, in no place where it will not be disturbed, until it has become thick and loppered, when, if it is held up before a strong light, the water, if any, will be found at the bottom. The milk will be solid as jelly in the middle and the cream on top. As the trouble and expense is small, I would advise all interested to make this test at once and satisfy themselves of its reliability. Should there be water in the bottom of the tumbler, show it to the milkman and give him to understand that you have a means of detecting his rascality, and advise him not to do it again. When milk is sweet there is no difficulty in mixing it with water, but the moment the milk sours the water goes to the bottom and the milk mounts to the top, making a cheap and reliable tell-tale on the dishonest milk-vender. The quantity of cream that rises on milk is no criterion of its purity, as the milk from one cow may show double the amount of cream of that from another cow, but the milkman whose milk shows the largest per cent. of cream ought to be well patronized in these days when everybody is after the greatest value in return for their money.

The New-York Press of to-day says: "The voters of Ulster County, N. Y., knew what they were doing when they went to the polls last November. They had been told in effect by the Cleveland campaigners that it would vastly improve the cement business of Rosendale and other towns in that County if the tariff was taken off that article—there would be a great foreign market for it, etc. But the Ulsterians gave Harrison 338 plurality, the highest plurality any general Republican ticket except one has received in that County since 1883. Now comes the sequel. The Democratic Kingston Leader says: "The Hudson River Cement Company and the Lawrence Cement Company are shipping barrels of cement as fast as it is ground. Business in this line is picking up, and many orders are received by the companies."

"The generally accepted theory that a warm summer follows a cold winter, and vice versa, has been examined by Science with the aid of temperature records made in the same place, under the same conditions, twice a day for 40 years. Science cannot find any rule on the subject, and comes to the conclusion that no estimate can be formed in regard to the character of the past season of any greater value than could be gained by mere guessing." If the coming winter is to be as fickle as the summer just ended, mankind hereabout will be miserable indeed.

U.C.W.C.TEMPERANCE UNION

TENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION ENDED TO-DAY AT MILTON.

Encouraging Reports From Local Unions—A Paper on "Unfermented Wine"—"Heredity and Hygiene"—Tobacco-Dealers Who Sell Cigarettes to Boys—Resolutions, Etc.

The Ulster County Women's Christian Temperance Union Convention was continued at Milton yesterday. The morning session was opened with devotional service, led by Miss Elizabeth Lockwood, of Marlborough.

The several representatives reported as follows: Miss. E. C. Hale, of Rondout, reported that the Rondout Union had held regular meetings, which were well attended. Mrs. E. Underhill Burgess, of Highland; Mrs. J. A. Buckmaster, of Marlborough; Mrs. S. M. Matthews, of Shokan; Mrs. Abram Deyo, of New-Paltz, and Mrs. Earle Stone, of Milton, reported from the Unions in their localities.

Mrs. J. A. Buckmaster read a report written by Mrs. S. M. Oliver, of Rosendale, on "Unfermented Wine." The report showed that nearly all the churches in Ulster County were using unfermented wine at communion services. In her report she gave the ideas of certain clergymen and doctors on the use of unfermented wine.

Mrs. S. M. Wakelee, of Kingston, read a report on the subject of "Hereditary and Hygiene."

Mrs. Samuel Judkins, of Ohioville, reported on "Social Purity."

Members of several departments, including "Evangelistic Work," "Influencing Physicians Not to Prescribe Alcoholics, and Narcotics" reported.

Mrs. D. B. Stow, of Rondout, stated that she had heard that many of the delegates had not learned that there was a law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to boys. She urged upon the delegates the necessity of informing themselves on this point, and to see to it that the law should be enforced.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Ulster County Women's Christian Temperance Union in Convention assembled again acknowledge the Great Helper and again thank Him for sustaining care and for continued guidance. Assured that He is on our side, we are encouraged to work on with renewed zeal in the lines we have undertaken and inspired to press on towards the work of our high calling.

Resolved, That the members of this convention are exceedingly grateful to their President for consenting to serve for us for another year and notwithstanding the demands made upon her to give us the inspiration of her leadership for another year.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Union be extended to the trustees and all others of the Milton M. E. Church for their courtesy and to the people of the village of Milton for their outspoken and generous hospitality.

Resolved, That the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Ulster County reaffirm its loyalty to the methods and aims of our State organization.

A resolution of regret on the death of Mrs. Lucy Webb Hayes was passed.

After hearing a report from Warwarsing Union the forenoon session was closed by a "good-tide" prayer, offered by the Rev. W. G. Westervelt.

The closing session was opened by a praise service, under the leadership of Mrs. Millspaugh, of Wallkill.

The report of the Credential Committee showed an attendance of 62 delegates.

The following Superintendents were appointed:

| | |
|---|---|
| "Scientific Instruction" | Mrs. S. Lefever |
| "Sunday School Work" | Mrs. C. H. Gaines |
| "Juvenile Work" | Mrs. K. Deane |
| "Evangelistic Work" | Miss E. Lockwood |

| "Mothers' Meetings" | Mrs. Maria T. Willis |
| "Influencing Press" | Miss Sarah Clark |
| "Unfermented Wine" | Mrs. M. N. Oliver |
| "Influencing Physicians" | Mrs. Terwilliger |
| "Hereditary and Hygiene" | Mrs. E. C. Wakelee |
| "Poison and Jail" | Mrs. C. A. Low |
| "Soldiers and Sailors" | Mrs. D. B. Stow |
| "Social Purity" | Mrs. S. Judkins |
| "Narcotics" | Mrs. S. M. Mathews |
| "Flower Mission" | Miss Emma Freer |
| "Young Women's Work" | Miss A. Lefever |

A new department was organized—that of Sunday Observation, with Mrs. C. H. Brundage, of Wawarsing, as Superintendent.

Miss Martha H. Hallock, of Milton, read a comprehensive paper on the subject of "Peace and Arbitration."

The Chair called upon Mrs. D. C. Nevin, of Highland, to take charge of a memorial service. Two members of the Kingston Union have died during the year—Miss Laura Merritt and Miss Flora Kennedy.

Closing words were spoken by Mrs. E. Underhill Burgess, who urged the women of the Union to go hand-in hand to battle against the common enemy.

The next meeting of the Convention will be held in this City. Prominent speakers will be present.

A MEETING HERE.

The members of the Downtown Women's Christian Temperance Union held a meeting in their rooms this afternoon.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK.

The Rev. A. H. Huizenga, of New-Paltz, James F. Osterhoudt, of the town of Ulster, and William Smith, of this City, have returned from a tour of the towns of Hardenburgh and Denning, in the interest of Sunday School work. They left the Ulster & Delaware Railroad near Pine Hill, and proceeded on foot to Dry Brook, where they addressed a large gathering in a grove. The missionaries went from Dry Brook over the mountains into the Millbrook region, by way of "Cat Ladder." At Turnwood another grove meeting was held. There were 400 people present, who came in wagons drawn by horses and oxen, on horseback and on foot. The members of four Sunday Schools marched with banners and flags to the music of two drum corps. During the afternoon a visit was made to the Quaker Clearing, thence to the West Branch of the Neversink, crossing Wild Cat Mountain to DeWittville, a walk of 13 miles. The grove meeting at that place was a large one. Mr. Huizengar left Messrs. Smith and Osterhoudt at Dewittville. From Dewittville Messrs. Smith and Osterhoudt walked to Red Kill, and thence to Sundown, where a large Sunday School meeting was held in the M. E. Church. Then they went to Bull Run. On their return trip they visited the Peekamoose Sunday School, at the headwaters of the Rondout Creek. This school was organized in June, 1882, by Secretary Smith and others. When it was instituted there was no building in which to hold sessions. The 18 children and teachers during the summer gathered in a grove on the mountain side. The school was mentioned in Mr. Smith's reports, and soon donations of books and papers were made. After a time a pavillion was built, in which to shelter the children from rain. Meetings were held in it for six years. Recently the members of a city club purchased 1,700 acres of land along the creek there and erected a club-house, and also a union chapel, which is now used by the school. Near by a Catholic lady has built a chapel, where she can worship according to her own faith. It is expected this chapel will be dedicated by Archbishop Corrigan some time this month. Messrs. Smith and Osterhoudt walked through The Gulf and from thence by way of Watson Hollow to Shokan.

IN THE PORTAL.

The annual meeting of the Archdeaconry of Orange will be held in St. George's Church, New-York City, on September 18. The following gentlemen have been elected to represent parishes: James J. Logan, W. Hewd and L. P. Church, St. Paul's, Newburgh; Aymar VanBuren, J. Abner Harper and D. P. Kelly, St. Thomas', New-Windsor; J. Pierrepont Morgan, Professor G. L. Andrews and Ezra Drew, Highland Falls; C. D. Bruyn, C. A. Fowler and Augustus Reynolds, St. John's, Kingston; C. McArdle, W. H. Wiggins and J. P. Pralm, Grace Church, Middletown; C. Butterfuss, Ellenville; Hon. D. B. St. John, H. Dudley and S. C. Mills, St. George's, Newburgh; R. D. A. Parott, Greenwood Lake; W. Harris and J. Chatfield, St. John's, Cornwall; George Weller, W. Weller and B. Parshall, St. Andrew's, Walden; C. W. Weston, H. Underwood and James Frances, Milton; D. Coe, J. A. Beall and A. T. Canfield, Highland; Frank H. Griffiths, C. V. A. Decker and Isaac C. Buswell, Church of the Holy Spirit, Rondout; W. D. Van Vliet, H. Payne and A. T. Mosher, St. James, Goshen. The clerical members are the Rectors of the above named parishes. The work mapped out for the Archdeaconry for the annual meeting is of an interesting and important character. Officers and standing committees are to be elected. There will be no election of Archdeacon, as the Rev. Mr. Thomas, of Highland, is doing effective work. His term will expire when his successor is appointed, and no one has yet been named or even suggested. Reports of the work in parishes and stations receiving pecuniary aid from the Archdeaconry will be read by the missionaries having charge of the same. New places for missionary effort will be presented, and the propriety of establishing missions in them will be considered. The intent and purpose of the Archdeaconry is to do work for the needy and destitute where existing religious bodies do not and cannot reach—not to supplant but to supplement. The stipends are voted at this meeting and other matters of importance transacted. The session will be opened with the administration of holy communion. The Rector of St. James Church, Goshen, will preach the sermon. Bishop Potter will be present and not only conduct the religious exercises, but preside over the session. A by no means insignificant feature of the annual meeting is the collation to be furnished by the ladies of St. George's Church who are noted for their hospitality.

The services at St. John's Church on Sunday will be as follows: Holy Communion, 7:30, morning service, 10:30 A. M.; Sunday School 2, evensong, 7:30 P. M.

A reception was given the Rev. Perry Jackson last evening. Many members of his church were present. Mr. Jackson was presented with a purse.

Y. M. C. A. WORK.

Luther Post will address the Young Men's service in the Uptown Young Men's Christian Association rooms at 3:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon. The Devotional Committee of the Association will meet in the rooms directly after the young men's service on Sunday afternoon. The Board of Directors will meet in the Association rooms on Monday evening.

The members of the Boys' Branch of the Downtown Young Men's Christian Association will have a prayer meeting at the rooms to-night.

The Sunday afternoon meeting at the rooms of the Downtown Young Men's Christian Association will be led by Eugene Deyo.

BIBLE READING TO-MORROW.

Mrs. Field, of New-York City, who has given a number of instructive Bible readings here, will give another reading at "Cloverly," the home of Mrs. Mary Westbrook Van Deusen, commencing at 2 o'clock to-morrow. Miss Hammersly, of New-York City, who will accompany Mrs. Field, will recite one of her own poems. These Bible readings are popular.

RECALLING THE STRONG MURDER.

One O'Brien, Serving a Sentence for Horse-Stealing, May Have Been the Assassin.

A dispatch from Denver, Colorado, to THE FREEMAN to-day stated: "The murderer of T. Morris Wain, of Haverford, Pa., and C. H. Strong, of Esopus, Ulster County, New-York, young hunters, who were killed by their guide or teamster in Carbon County, Wyoming, June 27, 1888, has been discovered in the person of one Thomas O'Brien, now serving 15 years in Canon City Penitentiary for stealing horses. Since the murder Jacob F. Wain, a brother of one of the murdered men, has made every endeavor to secure the arrest of the guilty party. Some months ago the Sheriff of Colorado Springs, advertised for the arrest of O'Brien for horse-stealing. One of the circulars with O'Brien's photograph fell into the hands of a ranchman near Rawlings, Wyo., who identified the portrait as that of the man who stopped at his house with Wain and Strong on the night of June 26. O'Brien was finally arrested and sentenced. Mr. Wain took the ranchman to the prison where he picked out the alleged murderer. He will try to have O'Brien taken to Wyoming and tried for murder."

In the Ulster Surrogate's Court.

In the Ulster County Surrogate's Court the following business has been transacted: Settlements made by Davis Winne as Administrator in estates of Josephine Keator and Chauncey Keator of this City. Collateral inheritance tax of legacies in estate of Peter D. Auchmoody computed. The matter of proving will of Elizabeth Whittaker, town of Ulster, adjourned to September 16. Citation issued to prove will of George A. Shultis, of Woodstock, returnable October 7. Supplemental citation issued to prove will of Palmer A. Canfield, this City, returnable October 28. Supplemental inventory filed in the estate of John J. Duffy. Petition made to advertise for claims in estate of George Everett, Plattekill. Time expires March 11, 1890. Annual statement of Brace Hopkins, Guardian of Eunice and Susan B. Hopkins, filed. Marcus Lane appointed Administrator of estate of David West, City of Kingston. Inventory filed in estate of Maritta Saxe, town of Saugerties.

Along the Docks Here.

There were reported at the Rondout Department of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company to-day the following barges for cargoes of coal: F. D. Tower, 210 tons; C. H. Douglass, 300; J. H. VanZile, 290.

The steamboat Austin arrived at this port last night with a large tow from New-York after being delayed two days by the storm.

THE RECORD OF CITY AMUSEMENTS.

"A Bunch of Keys" Last Night—"Chaos Flat"—"Keep it Dark," Etc.

"A Bunch of Keys" was presented at Liscomb's Opera House last evening by the Daniels and Riegels Company. It is a roaring farce. Fun was all the author aimed at, and he succeeded. As a whole the company is a good one, though Miss Raymond as "Teddy," the principal role, tried to be too pert by half, considering the amount of brains she has and the artistic ability she lacks. Charles Burke as "Snags," F. E. Damm as "Jonas Grimes" and Florence Barry as "May Keyes" carried off the honors. The house was packed and the applause was generous. There were several encores. Should "A Bunch of Keys" be presented here again a full house is assured. Manager Liscomb is to be congratulated.

A musical comedy, "Chaos Flat," will be given at Kingston Opera House on Monday evening. The leaders in the company, the comediennes Rillie and Ada Deaves, are said to be bright and versatile. The music is unique and catchy, and novel effects in stage dressing will be introduced. The company carry three sets of special scenery, painted by Thomas Weston, of the Grand Opera House, New-York City. The scenery for the last act, entitled "Amber Palace," is said to be "gorgeous." Among the musical specialties and songs there will be much that is new and novel. There are 17 persons in the cast.

"Chaos Flat" a musical comedy, will be the attraction at the Kingston Opera House on Monday evening, September 16. The company is comprised of the comediennes Rillie and Ada Deaves assisted by Frank Kendrick, Harry McDowell, Harry Mack, E. E. Osgood, W. F. Nebe, W. P. Sheldon, Everett Gould, F. J. King, J. Williams, Leslie Fursman, Emily Seymour, Alice May and W. T. Francis. The company carry special scenery which is said to be novel and gorgeous.

EPITOME OF A DAY'S NEWS

THAT IS OF ESPECIAL INTEREST TO PEOPLE LIVING HERE.

Paragraphs Relating to Men and Matters That Have Happened or are Likely to Occur, Which Furnish "Easy" Reading to Those Interested in the City's Welfare.

Every once in a while a "child's story" is printed on this page. Some of the youngsters say quaint things, and occasionally "children of an older growth" will say to themselves: "Is it possible that a four-year-old did really say what THE FREEMAN states it did?" Apropos of this it may be pointed out that in the last volume of the "Educational Series" on "The Development of the Intellect" H. W. Brown has presented a conspectus of the observations of Professor Preyer on the mind of the child, which shows chronologically the gradual development of the senses, intellect and will of the growing child, and presents in a condensed form the result of a great number of careful observations. It is recorded that sensibility to light, touch, temperature, smell and taste are present on the first day of infant life. Hearing, therefore, is the only special sense which is not active at this time. The child hears by the third or fourth day. Taste and smell are senses at first most active, but they are not differentiated. General organic sensations of well being or discomfort are felt from the first, but pain and pleasure, as mental states, are not noted till at or near the second month. This first sign of speech in the shape of utterance of consonant sounds is heard in the latter part of the second month, these consonants being generally "m," "r," "g," or "t." All the movements of the eyes become co-ordinate by the fourth month, and by this time the child begins to have the "feeling of self," that is, he looks at his own hands and looks at himself in the mirror. The study of the child's mind during the first year shows conclusively that ideas develop and reasoning processes occur before there is any knowledge of words or language; though it may be assumed that the child thinks in symbols, visual or auditory, which are clumsy equivalents for words. By the end of the year the child begins to express itself by sounds; that is, speech begins. The development of this speech capacity is according to Preyer, in accordance with the development of the intellectual powers. By the end of the second year the child's power of speech is practically acquired. Yes, the stories printed here are generally true to Nature.

An "Observer" says: "Some City people have acquired a most unfortunate habit of sneering at and ridiculing the country and country people. It is not the active, successful class of people who do this. Such have too much sense, and besides, a large proportion were themselves country born and bred. Any one having true appreciation of the importance of the farming population as the basis of public prosperity cannot fail to treat it not merely with respect, but with deference. Every class has some peculiarities. Those of country people are such as to adapt them to the necessities of their life, and it is upon the workers in the country, rather than upon idlers anywhere, that the progress of mankind must always be based."

A considerable portion of the milk sold in this City is of poor quality. A correspondent of the Middletown Argus writes:

Many a housekeeper has been puzzled to know at times whether or not the milkman is honest. I would suggest that they at times set away a tumblerful of the milk, in some place where it will not be disturbed, until it has become thick and loppered, when, if it is held up before a strong light, the water, if any, will be found at the bottom. The milk will be solid as jelly in the middle and the cream on top. As the trouble and expense is small, I would advise all interested to make this test at once and satisfy themselves of its reliability. Should there be water in the bottom of the tumbler, show it to the milkman and give him to understand that you have a means of detecting his rascality, and advise him not to do it again. When milk is sweet there is no difficulty in mixing it with water, but the moment the milk sours the water goes to the bottom and the milk mounts to the top, making a cheap and reliable tell-tale on the dishonest milk-vender. The quantity of cream that rises on milk is no criterion of its purity, as the milk from one cow may show double the amount of cream of that from another cow, but the milkman whose milk shows the largest per cent. of cream ought to be well patronized in these days when everybody is after the greatest value in return for their money.

The New-York Press of to-day says: "The voters of Ulster County, N. Y., knew what they were doing when they went to the polls last November. They had been told in effect by the Cleveland campaigners that it would vastly improve the cement business of Rosendale and other towns in that County if the tariff was taken off that article—there would be a great foreign market for it, etc. But the Ulsterians gave Harrison 338 plurality, the highest plurality any general Republican ticket except one has received in that County since 1883. Now comes the sequel. The Democratic Kingston Leader says: "The Hudson River Cement Company and the Lawrence Cement Company are shipping barrels of cement as fast as it is ground. Business in this line is picking up, and many orders are received by the companies."

"The generally accepted theory that a warm summer follows a cold winter, and vice versa, has been examined by Science with the aid of temperature records made in the same place, under the same conditions, twice a day for 40 years. Science cannot find any rule on the subject, and comes to the conclusion that no estimate can be formed in regard to the character of the past season of any greater value than could be gained by mere guessing." If the coming winter is to be as fickle as the summer just ended, mankind hereabout will be miserable indeed.

There has been many "dull days" for merchants this week, and there has been much "lost time" by laboring men and mechanics who work out-of-doors, all due to the weather. The indications for to-morrow are: "Rain followed by fair weather."

TENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION ENDED TO-DAY AT MILTON.

Encouraging Reports From Local Unions—A Paper on "Unfermented Wine"—"Heredity and Hygiene"—Tobacco-Dealers Who Sell Cigarettes to Boys—Resolutions, Etc.

The Ulster County Women's Christian Temperance Union Convention was continued at Milton yesterday. The morning session was opened with devotional service, led by Miss Elizabeth Lockwood, of Marlborough.

The several representatives reported as follows: Miss. E. C. Hale, of Rondout, reported that the Rondout Union had held regular meetings, which were well attended. Mrs. E. Underhill Burgess, of Highland; Mrs. J. A. Buckmaster, of Marlborough; Mrs. S. M. Matthews, of Shokan; Mrs. Abram Deyo, of New-Paltz, and Mrs. Earle Stone, of Milton, reported from the Unions in their localities.

Mrs. J. A. Buckmaster read a report written by Mrs. S. M. Oliver, of Rosendale, on "Unfermented Wine." The report showed that nearly all the churches in Ulster County were using unfermented wine at communion services. In her report she gave the ideas of certain clergymen and doctors on the use of unfermented wine.

Mrs. S. M. Wakelee, of Kingston, read a report on the subject of "Hereditary and Hygiene."

Mrs. Samuel Judkins, of Ohioville, reported on "Social Purity."

Members of several departments, including "Evangelistic Work," "Influencing Physicians Not to Prescribe Alcoholics, and Narcotics" reported.

Mrs. D. B. Stow, of Rondout, stated that she had heard that many of the delegates had not learned that there was a law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to boys. She urged upon the delegates the necessity of informing themselves on this point, and to see to it that the law should be enforced.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That the Ulster County Women's Christian Temperance Union in Convention assembled again acknowledge the Great Helper and again thank Him for sustaining care and for continued guidance. Assured that He is on our side, we are encouraged to work on with renewed zeal in the lines we have undertaken and inspired to press on towards the work of our high calling.

Resolved, That the members of this convention are exceedingly grateful to their President for consenting to serve for us for another year and notwithstanding the demands made upon her to give us the inspiration of her leadership for another year.

Resolved, That the thanks of this Union be extended to the trustees and all others of the Milton M. E. Church for their courtesy and to the people of the village of Milton for their outspoken and generous hospitality.

Resolved, That the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Ulster County reaffirm its loyalty to the methods and aims of our State organization.

A resolution of regret on the death of Mrs. Lucy Webb Hayes was passed.

After hearing a report from Warwarsing Union the forenoon session was closed by a "nood-tide" prayer, offered by the Rev. W. G. Westervelt.

The closing session was opened by a praise service, under the leadership of Mrs. Millspaugh, of Wallkill.

The report of the Credential Committee showed an attendance of 62 delegates.

A MEETING HERE.

The members of the Downtown Women's Christian Temperance Union held a meeting in their rooms this afternoon.

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORK.

The Rev. A. H. Huizenga, of New-Paltz, James F. Osterhoudt, of the town of Ulster, and William Smith, of this City, have returned from a tour of the towns of Hardenburgh and Denning, in the interest of Sunday School work. They left the Ulster & Delaware Railroad near Pine Hill, and proceeded on foot to Dry Brook, where they addressed a large gathering in a grove. The missionaries went from Dry Brook over the mountains into the Millbrook region, by way of "Cat Ladder." At Turnwood another grove meeting was held. There were 400 people present, who came in wagons drawn by horses and oxen, on horseback and on foot. The members of four Sunday Schools marched with banners and flags to the music of two drum corps. During the afternoon a visit was made to the Quaker Clearing, thence to the West Branch of the Neversink, crossing Wild Cat Mountain to DeWittville, a walk of 13 miles. The grove meeting at that place was a large one. Mr. Huizengar left Messrs. Smith and Osterhoudt at Dewittville. From Dewittville Messrs. Smith and Osterhoudt walked to Red Kill, and thence to Sundown, where a large Sunday School meeting was held in the M. E. Church. Then they went to Bull Run. On their return trip they visited the Peekamoose Sunday School, at the headwaters of the Rondout Creek. This school was organized in June, 1882, by Secretary Smith and others. When it was instituted there was no building in which to hold sessions. The 18 children and teachers during the summer gathered in a grove on the mountain side. The school was mentioned in Mr. Smith's reports, and soon donations of books and papers were made. After a time a pavillion was built, in which to shelter the children from rain. Meetings were held in it for six years. Recently the members of a city club purchased 1,700 acres of land along the creek there and erected a club-house, and also a union chapel, which is now used by the school. Near by a Catholic lady has built a chapel, where she can worship according to her own faith. It is expected this chapel will be dedicated by Archbishop Corrigan some time this month. Messrs. Smith and Osterhoudt walked through The Gulf and from thence by way of Watson Hollow to Shokan.

IN THE PORTAL.

The annual meeting of the Archdeaconry of Orange will be held in St. George's Church, New-York City, on September 18. The following gentlemen have been elected to represent parishes: James J. Logan, W. Hewd and L. P. Church, St. Paul's, Newburgh; Aymar VanBuren, J. Abner Harper and D. P. Kelly, St. Thomas', New-Windsor; J. Pierrepont Morgan, Professor G. L. Andrews and Ezra Drew, Highland Falls; C. D. Bruyn, C. A. Fowler and Augustus Reynolds, St. John's, Kingston; C. McArdle, W. H. Wiggins and J. P. Pralm, Grace Church, Middletown; C. Butterfuss, Ellenville; Hon. D. B. St. John, H. Dudley and S. C. Mills, St. George's, Newburgh; R. D. A. Parott, Greenwood Lake; W. Harris and J. Chatfield, St. John's, Cornwall; George Weller, W. Weller and B. Parshall, St. Andrew's, Walden; C. W. Weston, H. Underwood and James Frances, Milton; D. Coe, J. A. Beall and A. T. Canfield, Highland; Frank H. Griffiths, C. V. A. Decker and Isaac C. Buswell, Church of the Holy Spirit, Rondout; W. D. Van Vliet, H. Payne and A. T. Mosher, St. James, Goshen. The clerical members are the Rectors of the above named parishes. The work mapped out for the Archdeaconry for the annual meeting is of an interesting and important character. Officers and standing committees are to be elected. There will be no election of Archdeacon, as the Rev. Mr. Thomas, of Highland, is doing effective work. His term will expire when his successor is appointed, and no one has yet been named or even suggested. Reports of the work in parishes and stations receiving pecuniary aid from the Archdeaconry will be read by the missionaries having charge of the same. New places for missionary effort will be presented, and the propriety of establishing missions in them will be considered. The intent and purpose of the Archdeaconry is to do work for the needy and destitute where existing religious bodies do not and cannot reach—not to supplant but to supplement. The stipends are voted at this meeting and other matters of importance transacted. The session will be opened with the administration of holy communion. The Rector of St. James Church, Goshen, will preach the sermon. Bishop Potter will be present and not only conduct the religious exercises, but preside over the session. A by no means insignificant feature of the annual meeting is the collation to be furnished by the ladies of St. George's Church who are noted for their hospitality.

The services at St. John's Church on Sunday will be as follows: Holy Communion, 7:30, morning service, 10:30 A. M.; Sunday School 2, evensong, 7:30 P. M.

A reception was given the Rev. Perry Jackson last evening. Many members of his church were present. Mr. Jackson was presented with a purse.

RECALLING THE STRONG MURDER.

One O'Brien, Serving a Sentence for Horse-Stealing, May Have Been the Assassin.

A dispatch from Denver, Colorado, to THE FREEMAN to-day stated: "The murderer of T. Morris Wain, of Haverford, Pa., and C. H. Strong, of Esopus, Ulster County, New-York, young hunters, who were killed by their guide or teamster in Carbon County, Wyoming, June 27, 1888, has been discovered in the person of one Thomas O'Brien, now serving 15 years in Canon City Penitentiary for stealing horses. Since the murder Jacob F. Wain, a brother of one of the murdered men, has made every endeavor to secure the arrest of the guilty party. Some months ago the Sheriff of Colorado Springs, advertised for the arrest of O'Brien for horse-stealing. One of the circulars with O'Brien's photograph fell into the hands of a ranchman near Rawlings, Wyo., who identified the portrait as that of the man who stopped at his house with Wain and Strong on the night of June 26. O'Brien was finally arrested and sentenced. Mr. Wain took the ranchman to the prison where he picked out the alleged murderer. He will try to have O'Brien taken to Wyoming and tried for murder."

THE RECORD OF CITY AMUSEMENTS.

"A Bunch of Keys" Last Night—"Chaos Flat"—"Keep it Dark," Etc.

"A Bunch of Keys" was presented at Liscomb's Opera House last evening by the Daniels and Riegels Company. It is a roaring farce. Fun was all the author aimed at, and he succeeded. As a whole the company is a good one, though Miss Raymond as "Teddy," the principal role, tried to be too pert by half, considering the amount of brains she has and the artistic ability she lacks. Charles Burke as "Snags," F. E. Damm as "Jonas Grimes" and Florence Barry as "May Keyes" carried off the honors. The house was packed and the applause was generous. There were several encores. Should "A Bunch of Keys" be presented here again a full house is assured. Manager Liscomb is to be congratulated.

A musical comedy, "Chaos Flat," will be given at Kingston Opera House on Monday evening. The leaders in the company, the comediennes Rillie and Ada Deaves, are said to be bright and versatile. The music is unique and catchy, and novel effects in stage dressing will be introduced. The company carry three sets of special scenery, painted by Thomas Weston, of the Grand Opera House, New-York City. The scenery for the last act, entitled "Amber Palace," is said to be "gorgeous." Among the musical specialties and songs there will be much that is new and novel. There are 17 persons in the cast.

"Chaos Flat" a musical comedy, will be the attraction at the Kingston Opera House on Monday evening, September 16. # EPITOME OF A DAY'S NEWS

THAT IS OF ESPECIAL INTEREST TO PEOPLE LIVING HERE.

Paragraphs Relating to Men and Matters That Have Happened or are Likely to Occur, Which Furnish "Easy" Reading to Those Interested in the City's Welfare.

Every once in a while a "child's story" is printed on this page. Some of the youngsters say quaint things, and occasionally "children of an older growth" will say to themselves: "Is it possible that a four-year-old did really say what THE FREEMAN states it did?" Apropos of this it may be pointed out that in the last volume of the "Educational Series" on "The Development of the Intellect" H. W. Brown has presented a conspectus of the observations of Professor Preyer on the mind of the child, which shows chronologically the gradual development of the senses, intellect and will of the growing child, and presents in a condensed form the result of a great number of careful observations. It is recorded that sensibility to light, touch, temperature, smell and taste are present on the first day of infant life. Hearing, therefore, is the only special sense which is not active at this time. The child hears by the third or fourth day. Taste and smell are senses at first most active, but they are not differentiated. General organic sensations of well being or discomfort are felt from the first, but pain and pleasure, as mental states, are not noted till at or near the second month. This first sign of speech in the shape of utterance of consonant sounds is heard in the latter part of the second month, these consonants being generally "m," "r," "g," or "t." All the movements of the eyes become co-ordinate by the fourth month, and by this time the child begins to have the "feeling of self," that is, he looks at his own hands and looks at himself in the mirror. The study of the child's mind during the first year shows conclusively that ideas develop and reasoning processes occur before there is any knowledge of words or language; though it may be assumed that the child thinks in symbols, visual or auditory, which are clumsy equivalents for words. By the end of the year the child begins to express itself by sounds; that is, speech begins. The development of this speech capacity is according to Preyer, in accordance with the development of the intellectual powers. By the end of the second year the child's power of speech is practically acquired. Yes, the stories printed here are generally true to Nature.

An "Observer" says: "Some City people have acquired a most unfortunate habit of sneering at and ridiculing the country and country people. It is not the active, successful class of people who do this. Such have too much sense, and besides, a large proportion were themselves country born and bred. Any one having true appreciation of the importance of the farming population as the basis of public prosperity cannot fail to treat it not merely with respect, but with deference. Every class has some peculiarities. Those of country people are such as to adapt them to the necessities of their life, and it is upon the workers in the country, rather than upon idlers anywhere, that the progress of mankind must always be based."

A considerable portion of the milk sold in this City is of poor quality. A correspondent of the Middletown Argus writes:

Many a housekeeper has been puzzled to know at times whether or not the milkman is honest. I would suggest that they at times set away a tumblerful of the milk, in some place where it will not be disturbed, until it has become thick and clappered, when, if it is held up before a strong light, the water, if any, will be found at the bottom. The milk will be solid as jelly in the middle and the cream on top. As the trouble and expense is small, I would advise all interested to make this test at once and satisfy themselves of its reliability. Should there be water in the bottom of the tumbler, show it to the milkman and give him to understand that you have a means of detecting his rascality, and advise him not to do it again. When milk is sweet there is no difficulty in mixing it with water, but the moment the milk sours the water goes to the bottom and the milk mounts to the top, making a cheap and reliable telltale on the dishonest milk-vender. The quantity of cream that rises on milk is no criterion of its purity, as the milk from one cow may show double the amount of cream of that from another cow, but the milkman whose milk shows the largest per cent. of cream ought to be well patronized in these days when everybody is after the greatest value in return for their money.

The New-York Press of to-day says: "The voters of Ulster County, N. Y., knew what they were doing when they went to the polls last November. They had been told in effect by the Cleveland campaigners that it would vastly improve the cement business of Rosendale and other towns in that County if the tariff was taken off that article—there would be a great foreign market for it, etc. But the Ulsterians gave Harrison 338 plurality, the highest plurality any general Republican ticket except one has received in that County since 1883. Now comes the sequel. The Democratic Kingston Leader says: "The Hudson River Cement Company and the Lawrence Cement Company are shipping barrels of cement as fast as it is ground. Business in this line is picking up, and many orders are received by the companies."

"The generally accepted theory that a warm summer follows a cold winter, and vice versa, has been examined by Science with the aid of temperature records made in the same place, under the same conditions, twice a day for 40 years. Science cannot find any rule on the subject, and comes to the conclusion that no estimate can be formed in regard to the character of the past season of any greater value than could be gained by mere guessing." If the coming winter is to be as fickle as the summer just ended, mankind hereabout will be miserable indeed.

There has been many "dull days" for merchants this week, and there has been much "lost time" by laboring men and mechanics who work out-of-doors, all due to the weather. The indications for to-morrow are: "Rain followed by fair weather."
